

July 2012

Not your Ordinary Newsletter. . . Not Your Ordinary Church

We had a wonderful beginning to the 2012 season today with a nice hike on the Adam's Canyon loop. Some of the comments from today included:

"This is a FIRST HIKE?" .... "Who planned this thing?" .... "We should fire him!"
"Could this hill be any STEEPER?!?!"

It was a wonderful hike, and we had nine adventurous folks come along!

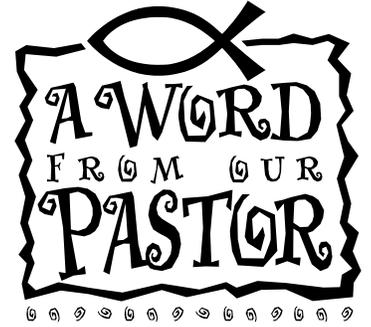

JULY 21st and July 22nd: This IS OUR CHURCH WEEKEND at Colter Bay. You are all encouraged and invited to attend all or part of the weekend camping trip. If you plan on coming up for the Saturday ALL CHURCH group dinner, please bring a sidedish to share. If you plan on camping, please bring the sidedish for Saturday night and then something to share for breakfast on Sunday morning before our 10am WORSHIP Service at the amphitheater at Colter Bay. Bibles and your favorite scripture verse are also welcome ! If you would like be part of the Sunday afternoon baptism, please contact Ben Pascal - bpascal@pcjh.org. Then it's off to read, relax, fish, boat, tour, play ... all blessed under the Glory of God's creation.

If you can carpool it is encouraged. Enter through the Campers Booth and let them know you are part of the PCJH Group. Large Group loop is the first loop entrance on your right. If possible, leave your dogs at home with a sitter. Camping fee is $5.00 per person per night.

Come create a church family memory. You are ALL welcome !

Howdy Everyone.

Pandora bracelets are a new trend on an old theme, charm bracelets. Worn on the wrist, they are visual reminders of special events that have taken place in the life of the person who is wearing it. The charm may represent a vacation or the special interest or skill of a child. It may be a reminder of a special day shared with a special friend. The charm may represent the hope of something yet to come, a place to visit, an experience to share.

Visual reminders are all around us and we incorporate them into our lives. This is wedding season in Jackson Hole and we are a destination wedding location. As I celebrate two people joining their lives together in holy marriage they exchange rings, visual reminders of the vows they have shared, the commitments they have made.

Traffic signs are another visual reminder of something important, directions. We who live in Jackson Hole become accustomed to where we are going and how we need to get there. What seems obvious to us can at times be confusing to those who are unfamiliar. We look past the signs with which we have become so familiar and we need to be patient with those who are seeking direction.

The fourth of July is filled with wonderful reminders. The annual parades remind us that we are a community of people who proudly benefit from the freedom envisioned and won by our founding fathers. The flag reminds us of the growth we have made from 13 colonies to 50 states and that the 50 states are one nation. The Music Festival performance puts to music the grandeur of the celebration. The fireworks create a visual image of those words from our national anthem from Francis Scott Key, "the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air, gave proof through the night that our flag was still there..." Visual reminders are only as good as the memory they reflect and the renewal of the commitment to the relationship they produce. If the relationship is broken or gone dormant then the charm is either put away or causes pain. If a marriage isn't healthy then the ring reminds one of bondage and not love and commitment. If signs are ignored then our transportation system becomes confused and dangerous. If our freedom has become self-centered focusing on my pleasure, my opportunities, my rights, then we can easily forget that with freedom comes responsibility and that responsibility must work for the best of the whole or a nation will be divided.

Worship is a reminder placed in our lives by God. When we gather we are reminded that we are to have no other gods before the One, true, God. When we sing praises, we are reminded that in the midst of all that clamors for our attention there is only one that deserves our ultimate praise. When we confess our sins we agree with God that we fall short of God's direction and if it were not for God's grace we would be cut off from his life giving presence. When we pray for one another we are reminded that our family extends far beyond biology and that we are joined with many others by God in whom "we live and move and have our being."

When we listen to the Word of God read, sung, and spoken we are reminded that there is direction given by God to help us live each and every day. When we present our tithes and offerings we are reminded to give thanks to the One from whom all blessings flow. When we are commissioned to Go and serve we are reminded that our purpose in living is not simply bread on our table but the sharing of our God's blessing, through word and deed, with a world that continues in great need. Worship is a reminder of who and whose we are.

When we celebrate Independence Day and live to the fullest this summer in Jackson Hole, may the signs that fill our lives remind us that we are "...One nation, under GOD, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Pastor Paul

Dear PCJH Family,

Grace and peace to you in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ! I hope this letter finds you blessed, whether in joy or in sorrow, may you know the God who walks with you in the midst of every situation and circumstance. May you know the God who surrounds you with abundant love and grace.

Hollywood

20 of us recently returned from a week of serving the homeless in Los Angeles. Our week was full of God sightings and amazing stories. We served meals at the Union Rescue Mission on Skid Row in downtown L.A. We heard the stories of ex-gang members who have been transformed by God through Homeboy Industries. We sorted and packaged food at the L.A. Food Bank, which serves over two million hungry people. One night we were "evicted" from the church where we were staying and each given a dollar and instructed to go find dinner. The only rules were that we needed to stick together in small groups with an adult, and come back having eaten a full meal. I encourage you to ask our high school students about this experience, as there were some amazing stories! Each morning and evening was devoted to praising God and reflecting on Scripture and our daily experiences. It was a rich week of fellowship, spiritual growth, service, and witness to God's transforming power. We all came home exhausted (in a good way) and excited for how God is calling us to continue to serve those who are in need right here in Jackson Hole. Many thanks to our amazing adult volunteers, Karen Fox, Deanna Fox and Jeff Hanson!

J.O.Y. Summer Camp

Jesus Oriented Youth Summer Camp has begun!! The campus and halls of PCJH are full with the sound of kids singing, learning and playing. It will be a ten-week summer camp full of fun, M-F. We are blessed with great leaders (Diane McGee and Sarah Gensch), in addition to seven teachers, and five LITs (leaders in training). The kids are memorizing a Bible verse each month, learning Bible stories, getting out into the great outdoors, singing songs, making crafts, enjoying "water days" and "bike days", etc. This summer PCJH will touch the lives of 90 campers, the majority of whom do not attend this church. Please keep all the leaders, teachers, LITs, and kids in your prayers as some will learn about Jesus for the first time, while others will grow deeper in their faith. Thanks be to God.

All Church Camping Trip at Colter Bay

Please read the announcement in this July's Pinnacle about the All Church Camping Trip. Everyone is invited to attend and be a part of this great fellowship event. I will be baptizing at least three people at Jackson Lake on Sunday, July 22nd after we worship at Colter Bay's interdenominational worship service. If you are interested in being baptized or renewing your baptismal vows, please contact me.

Emerging Church Worship, July 29th

During 2012, the PCJH worship committee has decided to explore various forms of worship whenever there is a fifth Sunday during a particular month. The next fifth Sunday is July 29th and we will be exploring the worship style of a recent church movement within Christianity called the "Emerging Church." I have been involved with a few emerging churches in the Seattle area and have been fascinated by this movement that is creating Christian community in postmodern cultures. We will have Mark & Summer Mohrlang leading us in worship that Sunday. Mark & Summer are friends of mine, and they both serve as pastors at a church in Seattle's Greenwood neighborhood. The church is called Sanctuary. They meet for worship in a popular performing arts theater and their "church building" is a local coffee shop that they own and operate, called The Green Bean. Mark is a gifted musician and worship leader, while Summer is a gifted pastor, preacher and administrator. You won't want to miss worship on July 29th at 10:15am.

Host Family for Intern, Andrew Perkins

We are still searching for a host family for our intern, Andrew Perkins. Please learn more about Andrew and what it means to be a host family in the June 2012 Pinnacle, which can be found on our website at...

I hope our paths cross many times this summer as we gather to love God, grow to know and follow our Lord, and go to make a difference in the name of Jesus Christ.

Faithfully,
~Pastor Ben

Little Lambs

What do you want to be when you grow up?

Summer is in full swing and with JOY Summer Camp going strong we are not without kids running around. On Thursday, June 7, 2012 fourteen Pre Kindergarten's graduated at our end of the year program. The Pre K kids have big and bright futures ahead of them. When asked what they wanted to be when they grow up, they had quite the responses! All of the Little Lambs participated in the program performing songs from our First Look bible curriculum and Handwriting Without Tears curriculum. We are excited for another summer in Jackson Hole, but as always look for the return of fall. See ya in August!
Love, Mrs. Erin

- ☺ Gabriel Sanchez - a chef.
- ☺ Katelynn White - a hair cutter.
- ☺ Sayre Jorgensen - a mom.
- ☺ Sam Dornan a bad guy fighter.
- ☺ Madison Lyons - a queen and a dentist.

STEPHEN MINISTER
Jane Lavino

My husband Ed and I are originally from the east coast but have been members of PCJH for many years now. Ed and I met when we were college students working in Yellowstone National Park during the summers. I currently work at the National Museum of Wildlife Art, here in Jackson, as an educator. Our daughter, Hillary, grew up here and is now a student at the University of Vermont.

I have been involved with the PCJH Stephen Ministry program since it was started at our church four years ago. I am truly humbled by, and grateful for, the opportunity to help with this program. Stephen Ministry is a program in which lay people are trained in counseling and care giving to serve their fellow Christians in need. The program was first founded by Reverend Kenneth C. Haugk at St. Stephen's Lutheran Church in St. Louis, Missouri in 1975. The program has now spread to many congregations and denominations worldwide.

The Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole has a very dedicated group of men and women who serve as Stephen Ministers. Each of us has received at least 50 hours of training in how to listen, be present, and be actively supportive to those going through a variety of challenges. No one is immune from struggles in this life. We all deal with challenges on a regular basis. The good news is we were not meant to face our challenges alone. I have first hand experience in how God uses his word, his spirit, and his people to provide growth and grace in times of need. We are all in need, and we have so much to offer each other.

People in our church are wonderful and amazing. I have been so impressed with the warmth, intelligence, empathy and non-judgmental generosity of those who serve our congregation as Stephen Ministers.

Let us know if we can help you. Visit <http://www.pcjh.org/stephen-ministry.htm> or call me (307) 699-2993. It would be my pleasure to pair you with just the right person to walk with you through whatever your current challenge may be right now.

STEPHEN MINISTER
Laura Garrard

I moved to Jackson and began attending PCJH in 2005. I am a certified massage and lymphatic therapist and run my own business, Attuned Healing Massage & Bodywork. In 2008, I joined the church as a member; I participate in the choir, attend the Wednesday night dinners, and enjoy the small group studies. When I'm not doing my fulfilling work with clients to address their health concerns, I explore the hiking trails, kayak, teach Reiki, write, paint and draw, and spend time with my boyfriend Mike and my 13-year-old dog Hannah. Recently I have gotten a kick out of spontaneously creating and telling stories over campfire. PCJH has been a wonderful source of spiritual growth and renewal for me, and I am honored to serve as a deacon.

STEPHEN MINISTERS are lay persons who are equipped to provide distinctively Christian one-to-one care to the church community who are experiencing crisis or difficult situations.

STEWARDSHIP

Everyday we can celebrate the joy of living in a country where our Constitution and Bill of Rights guarantee our freedoms. Many brave men and women have and still do put their lives on the line to protect our precious freedoms. Through the ultimate sacrifice of our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, we have the freedom to accept His love and without the help of a High Priest, have personal access to our loving God. Christ gave his life to establish a New Covenant where every human being can choose to follow in the steps of the Son of God.

We have the personal freedom to choose to serve our Lord and Savior with our time, our talents, our love, and our financial gifts. There are those who say if we sow a seed of $273 or $84 a month, or $1,000 we will receive a financial break-through or some other fantastic gifts from God. They tell us our motive for giving should be to get a selfish result. If our gift is given because we love our God and want others to know Him, our joy will be instant. All of us are free to give sacrificially with no regard for what we will get in return.

Our reasons to give to the Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole should be Little Lambs, J.O.Y. University, Upward Basketball, youth and adult mission trips, baptisms, memorial services, Wednesday night dinners, youth groups, Sunday School, worship services, adult education, Stephen Ministry, community garden, support of local missions, and every expression of love coming from our members and friends. We can be excited to give, expressing our love for our Lord and for all others God created to share this world with us. As the music says, "They will know us by our love."

MISSION TRIP TO MINOT, ND - SEPTEMBER 2012

The Presbytery of Wyoming is planning a mission trip to Minot, North Dakota to help the people recover from weather damage, etc. The trip is scheduled for September 23rd-29th. This may be an easy way for people from PCJH to participate in a national disaster response trip, as well as connect with other Presbyterians from Wyoming. At this point they are considering carpooling from various areas in the state, depending on who signs up. Alternatively, Sheridan is only about an 8 hour drive from Minot and could serve as a central meeting location.

If you have an interest in participating and would like more details please contact Brian Johnson, the Associate Pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Sheridan at (307) 672-1717 or bjohnson@actaccess.net. Also please feel free to contact Ben Pascal at bpascal@pcjh.org or Bob Kopp at bkopp@waldenasset.com with questions.

Sign up the next Agros Trip!!!

Do you have a heart for the world's poor? Do you have some time, talent, or treasure that you are looking to put to good use? Wondering how to get involved with mission at PCJH? If so, this trip may be for you! Details below:

- . Trip dates are November 3-11, 2012
- . Applications are available at PCJH or from Bob Kopp
- . Cost is approximately $1600 per person
- . The first team meeting will be Monday, July 30 from 6:30-9:00pm

Contact Bob Kopp at bkopp@waldenasset.com or Addie Pascal at addiepascal@gmail.com for more info

SUMMER READING IDEAS FROM THE PCJH LIBRARY

Please come by the library and find a book for your summer reading pleasure!

Some ideas:

Grace Eventually...Thoughts on Faith by Anne Lamott: From the NYT bestselling author, this book has both "razor- sharp wit and disarming spiritual sincerity."

Everybody's Normal Till You Get to Know Them by John Ortberg: This well known Christian author has written a popular book which promises a "thought provoking look at God's heart, at others, and at yourself. Even better, you'll gain wisdom and tools for drawing closer to others in powerful, impactful ways."

One Thousand Gifts....a Dare to Live Fully Right Where You Are by Ann Voskamp: The back cover of this book says it best: "This book beckons you to leave the parched ground of pride, fear and white-knuckles control and abandon yourself to the God who overflows your cup".....

THE LIBRARY TEAM THANKS YOU FOR YOUR PAST DONATIONS AND REMINDS YOU THAT OUR SHELVES ARE FULL AND (for the time being), THERE IS NO MORE ROOM IN THE INN!

Thanks, PCJH Librarians
