Prayer of Adoration and Confession* Becky Kimmel
Almighty God, you are the God of history. From the moment you spoke it into solidity to the culmination when your eternal kingdom comes, you oversee all that happens. When we catch a glimpse of what you are doing we stand in awe. When we can't fathom how certain events will work for your purpose, we wait in mystery. Looking to the past we see what you have done. Looking to the future we trust in your sovereign love. Thank you that you are trustworthy. Thank you for demonstrating your sovereign love through Jesus.

O Lord, our heart and will wavers in our trust of you. We want to believe that our understanding and decisions can fulfill your will. However, more often than not they lead us away from you. Forgive us, Lord, for our lack of trust. Help us in our unbelief. Open our eyes to see you. Help us to move from our pasts in which we are often stuck, and move into your glorious future. And as we move, O Lord, help us to become like Jesus, our Savior, our example, our friend. In His name we pray. Amen.
