Thoughts for Reflection

"Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him. He will be like a tree planted by the water that sends out its roots by the stream. It does not fear when heat comes; its leaves are always green. It has no worries in a year of drought and never fails to bear fruit." ~Jeremiah 17:7-8

"To be rooted is perhaps the most important and least recognized need of the human soul." ~Simone Weil

"Without being rooted and grounded in the love of God, we cannot experience the fullness of God in our lives." ~Senora Roy

"All that is gold does not glitter, not all those who wander are lost; the old that is strong does not wither, deep roots are not reached by the frost." ~J.R.R. Tolkien

"So then, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to live in him, rooted and built up in him..." ~Colossians 2:6-7a

Prayer of Confession

One: As we enter into this time of worship, let us come before our Holy and Loving God to confess our sins so that we may live in the truth and the light. May we approach the Lord with confidence, knowing that we will be washed and made whole in God's unfathomable grace. In the presence of our Heavenly Father's love, through Jesus Christ our Lord, let us allow the Holy Spirit to search our hearts for any sin that has made its home in us.

(...take a few moments of silence to allow the Holy Spirit to search your heart...)

One: Let us pray.

All: Most merciful God, we confess that we have sinned against you in thought, word, and deed, by what we have done, and by what we have left undone. We have not loved you with our whole heart; we have not loved our neighbors as ourselves. We are truly sorry and we humbly repent, for the sake of your Son Jesus Christ, have mercy on us and forgive us; that we may delight in your will, and walk in your ways, to the glory of your Name. Amen.¹

Pastoral Prayer and the Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.
