Thoughts for Reflection

The more we focus on who we are in Christ, the less it matters who we were in the past, or even what happened to us.
~ Joyce Meyer

Baptism is an outward expression of an inward faith.
~ Watchman Nee

Time would fail me were I to try to lay before you in order all the passages in the Holy Scriptures which relate to the efficacy of baptism or to explain the mysterious doctrine of that second birth which though it is our second is yet our first in Christ.
~ Saint Jerome

What a Beautiful Name

Prayer of Confession¹

One: To a world of brokenness, God speaks of healing. To a time of confusion, God tells of a future grounded in love. To a people longing for redemption, God comes to bring us home. Let us confess how we have not heard God speaking to us, as we pray, saying:

All: God of Spirit and fire: baptized, we have not done a good job as your people. We are drawn to the shadows of sin, hoping you will not see our foolishness. We fall into the arms of temptation, letting it spin us until we are out of control. We selfishly cling to the blessings you have given us, convinced that others will misuse these gifts. Forgive us, O Lord. Touch us with your Spirit, so we may be restored to new life; touch us with your grace, so we may offer forgiveness to all people; touch us with your peace, so we might be healers to our world. This we pray in the name of the One who went into the waters of baptism to cleanse us of sin, Jesus Christ, our Lord and Savior. Amen.
