Thoughts for the Day

"No one has ever become poor by giving."

~Anne Frank

"Life's most persistent and urgent question is, 'What are you doing for others?'"

~Martin Luther King, Jr.

"Those who are happiest are those who do the most for others."

~Booker T. Washington

"If you aim for only wealth, beauty, fame, & power, you aim too low. Humility, gentleness, gratitude, & service is aiming high."

~ LeCrae

Loving God, we know we are too busy for our own good. We pledge ourselves to hectic schedules, demands on time, energy, and resources that erode all too quickly. We seem to rush through life. The cries of those in need often go unheeded in our blur of activities which sap our energy, our resources, our spirits. Forgive us. Slow us down, Lord. Help us to change our priorities and to listen to your voice. Remind us again that we are called to the care of this world. Let us readily offer your healing love to the least of these. Help us to hear the words of love that you have for us. Help us remember Jesus' words when he told his disciples that greatness is found in serving others. May we take time to bear witness to that love in all that we do. For we ask this in Jesus' Name. Amen.
