Live It: Encourage your children to tell you about times when they've been worried or scared. Ask them to tell you what helped them feel better. Then, share a story from your own life of a difficult time when Jesus gave you peace beyond your ability to understand (see Philippians 4:7). Ask your children to come to you when they are experiencing life's storms. Make a promise to pray for them and help them depend on Jesus so that they can experience True Peace no matter what problems they face.

Try This: As a family, look at family pictures or videos. Talk about the different situations experienced by family members. Thank God for always being with you in good and hard times. Talk about things you can do as a family to depend on Jesus in every situation.
