Paul's Page

Howdy Everyone.

Well, by the time you get this newsletter about 125 of us will have read through the Books of Genesis and Matthew with a few readings from the Psalms thrown in between. I have thoroughly enjoyed my readings. I have tended to lump together larger blocks of times so I read three or four days of readings at one shot. It has really helped me renew the flow of the stories and the teachings in a fashion I sometimes miss when I am looking at a smaller portion for sermon preparation or for a class.

As some of you know I grew up on the Bible. The stories from its pages were central to all we did. I knew when I felt confusion in my life that God was not absent but just like at creation the Holy Spirit was there. I knew when I felt like I was in a desert that God could provide for me just like the Children of Israel of old. I grew up knowing when I was an underdog in a sport that David had been such an underdog going out against Goliath. I grew up knowing that I was loved by the creator of the universe because Jesus became a part of our world to tell me so. The stories of the Bible were a powerful force to shape my faith and life.

Like many of you as I matured, my reading of the Bible text matured as well. There were questions about the text that I never had considered when I only heard the simple story. Some of the stories seemed too good to be true and you know what people say about that. Some of the stories I hoped were too bad to be true because I didn't want my God to be a god like that. It seemed the deeper I got into the scriptures the more difficulties there were to overcome.

I know some of you have struggled along this same road for understanding. Pastor Ben and I were talking about some of this one day and he shared with me a comment from one of his professors that I found very helpful. The professor said, "The Bible is just like Jesus, totally human and totally divine."

Christians have professed for nearly two millennia this balanced understanding of our Lord. None of us totally know how Jesus' humanity and divinity fit together. In faith we acknowledge that they do. So it is with the scriptures. There are parts that raise a lot of questions (human), but, in the midst of those questions we can hear God speak if we are willing and receptive (divine).

One way to open our hearts to God's word is to pray before we start to read. Jesus taught us that he would send Holy Spirit to be our teacher (John 16:7; 14:26; 15:26). We understand on the Day of Pentecost Jesus fulfilled his promise and sent Holy Spirit to those who believe in and follow Jesus. As a result you can ask Holy Spirit to be present when you read the Bible so you can hear God speaking and be directed as to how you might respond. John Calvin said it well long ago:

...without the illumination of the Holy Spirit, the Word can do nothing. From this, also it is clear that faith is much higher than human understanding. And it will not be enough for the mind to be illumined by the Spirit of God unless the heart is also strengthened and supported by his power. III.II.33

So, invite the Spirit into your daily readings. Turn your inner ear to his direction as you read. Reading the Bible can be a great adventure which God will use to shape and direct your life.

Reading God's word with you,

Pastor Paul

A Message From Pastor Ben

Dear PCJH Family,

I recently had an amazing day of snowboarding at the Village. 12" of new powder and blue skies! It reminded me of just how much I love Jackson Hole. However, even though I love the mountains and all the fun recreational opportunities, I love PCJH more. I love what this community does in the name of Christ our Lord. Thank you for your commitment to this church and to Jesus. I am honored to be one of your pastors!

LOOKING BACK ...

College Student Dinner - In December, Addie and I hosted 12 college students at our house for dinner and fellowship. It was great to connect with students I had known from my previous years at PCJH. Let's keep our college students in our prayers as they study and discern what God is calling them to be and do.

Church in the Tetons - In January, I had the chance to preach at our new sister church in Driggs, Idaho. Pastor Ian and his wife Mindy are doing a wonderful job building a community of faithful believers on the other side of the hill. Let's keep them in our prayers too.

Date Night - We had our 2nd Date Night in January. Our 15 volunteers cared for 35 children as their parents went out to dinner. It's great to see the church encourage parents to care for themselves and their marriage. The next Date Night is coming again in April.

Confirmation Class - We have ten faithful students in 8th-12th grade who are participating in our church confirmation class. They are eager to learn more about their faith and I am impressed with their energy and commitment. Please keep them in your prayers as they seek God in their lives.

Marriage Fellowship Dinner - We had our first marriage fellowship dinner in January. Eighteen people showed up. We ate together, played a fun game, and had a meaningful discussion about marriage. People of all ages were present; some with or without their spouse; and new friendships were formed. These dinners will be once a month as a way to strengthen marriages in Jackson Hole. The next dinner will be Friday, February 18th.

LOOKING FORWARD ... CYF Volunteer Enrichment & Appreciation - On Tuesday evening, February 8th, we will be hosting a special gathering for all of our CYF volunteers at a private location along Teton Village Road. It will be an evening filled with food, fun, training and encouragement in order to thank you and enrich you as one of our faithful volunteers. We truly appreciate all of you who help make CYF a success. If you are interested in becoming a CYF volunteer, please contact me and come join us on February 8th.

Spiritual Disciplines Class - Many of us exercise regularly and are disciplined in many areas of life, whether in our profession, hobbies or recreational activities. However, have you ever approached your faith with similar focus and intention? Christians throughout the centuries have done just that... they have practiced spiritual disciplines in order to exercise and stretch their spirit so that they increase their strength as faithful followers of Jesus Christ. During Lent (starting Feb. 16th), I will be teaching a class on Wednesdays at 5:15pm that will explore eight of the spiritual disciplines. My hope is that you will challenge yourself and come to the class. Expect a spiritual workout!

Hosea Sermon Series - If you haven't made it to Wednesday Night Contemporary Worship yet, I encourage you to come check it out. We are studying the Old Testament book of Hosea. We spend time in worship through music, prayer, conversation and a message. We are also now celebrating communion every third Wednesday of the month. Come join us!

Worship at the top of the Gondola - Calling all skiers and snowboarders!! In partnership with Jackson Hole Mountain Resort, I will be leading a worship service at the top of the Gondola on Sunday, February 20th at 9:30am. Come worship and then ski the rest of the day with your Pastor. Invite friends!

May the Lord bless you and keep you; may he make his face shine upon you and give you peace!

Faithfully, -Pastor Ben

CYF 15-Month Post-College Internships

Session has approved CYF to begin a national search for two post-college interns to join us in ministry and mission starting in June 2011 through the end of August 2012. Both interns will be involved in the J.O.Y. Summer Camp Ministry in addition to general CYF ministries during the school year. We are seeking one intern who is called and gifted to minister to God's people through worship, music and the arts. We are seeking a second intern who is called and gifted in Children's and/or Youth Ministry. For more detailed job descriptions and an application, please contact Pastor Ben at bpascal@pcjh.org. Applications are due February 28th.

Host Families for Interns

We are seeking host families for our post-college interns. You might consider hosting the interns for their full 15-month internship or a 3, 6 or 9 month portion of their internship. While you and your family prayerfully explore this ministry opportunity, consider these commonly asked questions:

¥ Will the intern be a part of the family?

Yes, you will be the intern's "surrogate family" while serving at PCJH.

¥ Will the intern expect us to be home when he/she is there?

No, the intern will, like you, be at work much of the time, sometimes at odd hours. Each intern's schedule will vary. Meals and weekends can be mutually arranged.

¥ Will the intern have a car?

Maybe. Questions for you to consider include: How long does it take to drive to PCJH on Sunday and mid-week? Are you close to a bus line? Is it a reasonable distance for a person to commute at night or on a bicycle?

¥ Will the intern be able to help out around the house, babysit, etc.?

The intern will be a part of your family and as such will be expected to keep his/her room clean, and help with meals and dishes. The expected work load at PCJH will be significant and therefore the interns should not be expected to do extra work or special house projects beyond what is mentioned above. However, interns could potentially be great house sitters if you are away for a period of time.

¥ What will the intern want or need to have provided?

Each intern will need a key to the house, a place close by to park the car or bike, and his/her own room.

¥ What about the lifestyle of the intern and his/her friends?

Each intern is carefully selected to represent Jesus Christ to our young people, so you should expect the highest standard of behavior. You should also be the one who clarifies the standard in your home, as a witness to your children or grandchildren, if present, and to the neighborhood.

¥ What if we have special vacation plans or a family hobby—will the intern need to be included or feel excluded?

Again, mutual understanding is key here. Interns will have retreats and mission trips that will form their holidays, if they do not go to their own family's house for the holidays. Certainly, it would be wonderful for the intern to be included, when schedules allow, on whatever outings you might wish to invite them.

¥ Will the intern be able to pay any rent or subsidize the food and utilities while living with me?

No, you are giving them room and board as your ministry to the intern and to PCJH's intern program. However, any special foods or drugstore items the intern might prefer should be at his/her own expense. He/She should also be responsible for his/her own transportation.

STEWARDSHIP - "I believe the Lord honors all who seek to learn more of his word"

2011 STEWARDSHIP CAMPAIGN UPDATE

All organizations, whether they are for profit or not-for-profit, need to establish an annual budget to help guide the organization through the fiscal year with proper financial management strategies. The goal of each organization is to develop a "balanced" budget which will hopefully have them spend only what the annual revenue will support.

The Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole has the same processes for establishing a budget that will balance our expenses with the support revenues that we expect to receive. Establishing the Expense side of the budget is done by examining the actual expenses of the past several years and considering new ones that will be important to the life of our church. Our expense budgeting has been very accurate the past several years due to the quality of the data that goes into establishing the budget amounts.

The Revenue piece of the budget, which is primarily funded by your generous contributions, is a more difficult amount to predict. In order to be better stewards of the church budget, over the past several years we have conducted a fall Stewardship Campaign to give our congregation the opportunity to provide an indication of their financial support for the coming year through a "pledge". The results of the past three years are as follows:

	Pledges for 2009	Pledges for 2010	Pledges for 2011
Total Pledge
Cards Submitted	151	173	133
Commitment of Percentage or Dollar amount	109	120	100
Commitment to Give when possible And pray for PCJH	42	53	33

As these numbers show, less than half of our 275-300 member families are currently participating in the annual pledge process. While each year the congregation responds with incredible generosity that allows our budget to ultimately be balanced in most years, the lack of an actual commitment from most members makes it very difficult to prepare an annual budget and manage that budget throughout the year.

Your Stewardship Team would like to ask all of our members who have not responded to this year's pledge campaign to prayerfully consider doing so. As always we thank you for your support that makes all the great work of this church possible. If you are interested in helping with the effort, please contact Ed Cheramy at 739-2157 or Becky Kimmel in the Church office.

Stewardship team: Ed Cheramy, Chair; Joe Amdor, Bob Kopp, Bob Lewis, Bobbi Thomasma, Paul Hayden and Becky Kimmel.

PRAISE GOD FROM WHOM ALL BLESSINGS FLOW FINANCIAL RESULTS

This was a tremendous year for the Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole, highlighted by the hiring of our new Assistant Pastor, Ben Pascal. God has blessed all of our Ministry and Mission programs. For example, the Children, Youth and Family ministry chalked up continuing successes in Little Lambs, expanded participation in Upward Basketball, an excellent summer program, kids Sunday school, youth groups, etc. Adult education enjoyed a number of enlightening programs. Expenditures for Mission projects increased over 13%. And the list of God's blessings goes on and on.

These successes are also reflected in our financial results. Once again, God has also financially blessed PCJH. Thanks be to Him! Thanks also to our congregation and staff for your extraordinary support.

The financial results for this past year were outstanding! Everyone did their part - the congregation stepped up with offerings substantially exceeding budget (+$102,000) and the staff contributed by holding expenses well below budget (-$34,000). Together, we were able to turn a planned operating deficit into a significant positive result, adding to our General Fund operating reserves.

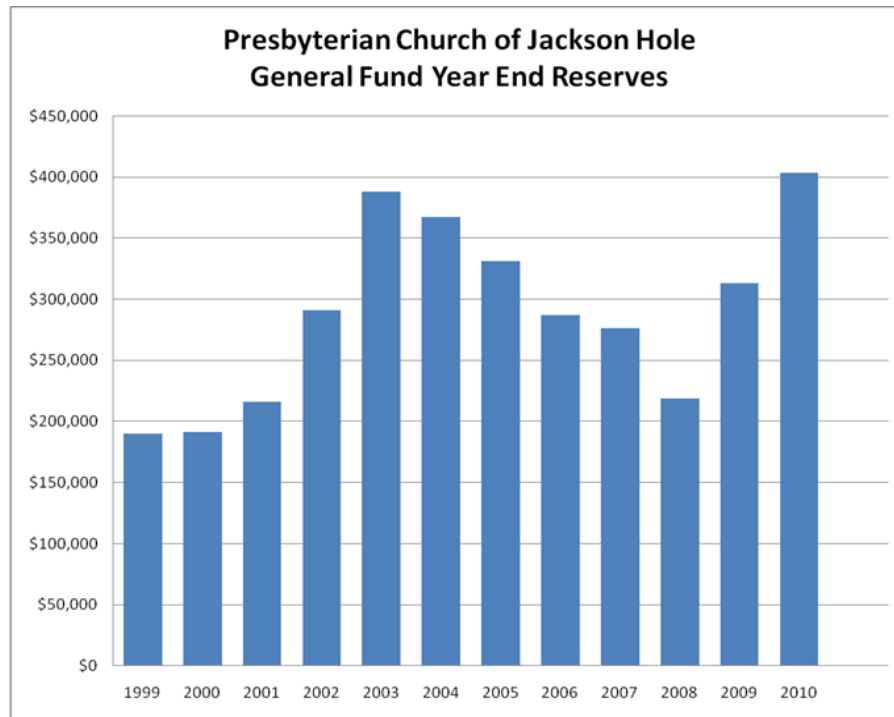

The following table summarizes the results:

	2010 Actual	2010 Budget	Favorable vs. Budget
REVENUE
Offerings	$902,000	$800,000	$102,000
Other Revenue	63,000	54,000	9,000
TOTAL REVENUE	965,000	854,000	111,000
TOTAL EXPENSES	925,000	959,000	34,000
NET INCREASE (DECREASE) IN GENERAL FUND RESERVES	$40,000 =====	$(105,000) =====	$ 145,000 (better than budget) =====

The accompanying graph illustrates the changes in our General Fund "Reserves" as of year end for the past 12 years. These reserves represent our "rainy day fund" and the cash set aside (beginning with $50,000 in 2010) to fund our maintenance reserve, in order to accumulate cash in advance of its requirement for major repairs and maintenance projects such as a new roof or repaving the parking lot. Reserves went down during the years of construction to expand the Church facility, but have grown substantially these past two years.

One significant financial challenge remains - debt. We still have approximately $1.5 million of debt remaining from the recent expansion of our Church facilities. Annual contributions to the Building Fund have been sufficient to cover the annual interest - now we must pay down principal. Your Stewardship Team quietly began a Debt Payoff Campaign last year, focusing first on participants in the initial Building Expansion Campaign. If you are interested in helping with this effort, please contact Ed Cheramy at 739-2157 or Becky Kimmel in the Church office.

LIBRARY NEWS

Thanks to all who have helped grow our library at PCJH! Because of your wonderful donations our shelves are full. Please come "check out" a novel, a devotional, or a guide to raising children in a Christian home. Also, if your study of the Bible has left you with questions....our library is full of resources to help you find the answers!

The following are this month's book reviews:

Boundaries in Marriage by Dr Henry Cloud and Dr. John Townsend: Only when you and your mate know and respect each other's needs, choices, and freedom can you give yourselves freely and lovingly to one another. This book gives you the tools you need.

The Ragamuffin Gospel (Embracing the Unconditional Love of God) by Brennan Manning: Are you missing the joy of grace? As the author says, "this book is not for the super-spiritual, but for the sorely burdened who are still shifting the heavy suitcase from one hand to the other".

Christian Caregiving, A Way of Life by Kenneth C. Haugk: Do you ever feel uncomfortable talking about your faith, praying with others, or trying to comfort a friend? This book will challenge and equip you to care for others in a distinctively Christian way. Dr Haugk is the executive director of Stephen Ministries.

If you would be interested in helping in the library (shelving, writing reviews, etc), please call Maggie at 690-0830!

BLANKET SUNDAY

February 13, 2009

"Tools of Hope—BLANKETS
A Rainbow of Caring to Children and Families the World Over"

One Blanket for $5 --- Two for $10 --- Five for $25!!
$15 can provide a hoe, shovel and rake for a rural family!

Your TOOLS OF HOPE AND BLANKET GIFTS make a world of difference for millions of people at home and around the globe who find themselves without basic necessities due to a natural or man-made disaster. CHURCH WORLD SERVICE, of which Presbyterian Church (USA) is a member, uses Tools of Hope and the Blanket Program funds to purchase and quickly ship blankets and other relief aid to areas of need. When possible, the tools and blankets are purchased closer to the scene of a disaster to speed delivery AND to spur local economics. Blankets not only keep people warm, they also provide shelter, privacy and are a means of carrying children, or transporting meager household goods. Tools of Hope can help a family help itself, and include family shelter kits, emergency medical supplies, food, water, cooking utensils, gardening tools, health and school kits, and other essentials.

We invite you again this year on FEBRUARY 13th, to participate in this one of four special offerings of PCJH. You may designate this gift of love "IN APPRECIATION OF" or "IN MEMORY OF" a loved one. We will place a special envelope for your offering in the sanctuary chairs.

You may fill out the form attached to the envelope if you wish to dedicate your gift in honor or remembrance of a loved one. (Donations may be made payable to PCJH). On Sunday February 20th, the names of donors and those honored will be printed in our bulletin; the list will appear again in our PINNACLE.

To read more about this mission to those in dire need, see churchworldservice.org.

June Nystrom & Bonnie Lewis - February 2011 Deacons

My name is Bonnie Lewis. I grew up on the east coast in the state of Delaware. My husband is Bob Lewis. The first years of our marriage we lived in Rehoboth Beach, Delaware. Bob's career as a senior mechanical engineering consultant for the Du Pont Company with his specialty in wear and friction of plastics opened up the opportunity for us to start a small company - Lewis Research, Inc. - that designs and builds wear test equipment, along with in-house testing. Lewis Research is located in Lewes, Delaware. I pay the bills and keep the books for our company.

Our first visit to Jackson, Wyoming, was in 1985. We loved the area, bought a condo and visited part time. We moved to Victor, Idaho, full time in 1994. Our son, Andrew, was born in 1995; and our daughter, Laura, was born in 1998. As a homeschooling family we enjoy the rich history of our area and all the outdoor sports available to us in our beautiful valley, especially snow skiing, snowmobiling, skate skiing (newbies!), hiking, horse riding, hunting, etc.

This is my second year as a PCJH deacon. As the deacon of the month, I am available to help with any special needs you may have. God's best to you in 2011! Bonnie Lewis Hi! I'm June Nystrom. Two years ago the prayers of this congregation and many others, along with God's grace, helped me receive a donor liver. That lovely liver made it possible for me to be here today. I'm married to Gary Gternberg, and my son Jack is going to graduate from WYO-TECH in Laramie just about the same time he turns 21. I just retired from teaching Elementary Art, grades 3-5, after 35 years of having the best job in the world; working with kids and art. I moved to Jackson 30 years ago from Wisconsin, and feel blessed to be able to live in such a beautiful place. I'm happy to be your deacon.
