Every Member a Minister

Dear PCJH Family,

Happy New Year!! I hope 2015 is less eventful than 2014! :) I suppose part of the excitement of life is not knowing what God has in store for us. We are simply called to trust him. One of my favorite passages from the Bible is Proverbs 3:5-6.

Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge him and he will direct your paths.

May we continue to trust the Lord in all that we do at the Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole. I am grateful to serve as your senior pastor! Below are a few things that are happening in January 2015 that I'd like for you to know about...

Walking With The Psalms – Sermon Series

We will kick off the New Year by looking at seven great psalms from the Old Testament. I love the Psalms because they are artistic and gritty. They are filled with hope and thanksgiving, yet also sorrow and pain. They are real. They are beautiful. They are majestic. They will inspire you and transform you. We are going to spend seven weeks looking at seven great psalms; one psalm per week. May we be blessed in our study of God's word!

Worship at the Summit of the Gondola

This will be my fifth winter serving as the Chaplain of the Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. As the chaplain, I provide several worship services throughout the winter at the summit of the gondola. We also provide a Christmas Eve and Easter sunrise service. My 2015 winter sermon series at the summit of the gondola is entitled, "Transformational Mountain Top Experiences." We will explore several transformational passages from Scripture that took place on the top of a mountain. I hope to see some of you up there on the following dates...

January 18th at 9:30am
February 15th at 9:30am
March 15th at 9:30am
April 5th - Easter Sunrise Service

This season the resort has again provided me with a uniform and I have been trained in mountain operations through the Mountain Host department. This provides me with access and opportunity to serve the staff and be a larger presence on the mountain. I look forward to seeing how God will use this opportunity to bless others beyond simply providing worship services.

As chaplain I am also "on call" if the resort should ever need me in a crisis situation. Please pray that my ministry at the Jackson Hole Mountain Resort will glorify God and create opportunities for people to get to know Jesus.

Church Information Class

I will be teaching a Church Information Class on Sunday, January 25th from 11:30am to 2:00pm (lunch and childcare provided). Please RSVP with Lindsey Parr at office@pcjh.org to confirm your spot. This class is for people who would like to learn more about PCJH (our history, beliefs, governing structure, budget, programs, staff, etc.) It is also the first step in becoming an official member if that is something you feel God calling you to do. I will be teaching the class and I look forward to having you join us!

Spiritual Care Volunteers at the Hospital

I currently serve as the clergy representative for the volunteer spiritual care program at St. John's Medical Center. We are currently looking for new spiritual care volunteers who have a desire to practice the ministry of compassion and presence as they serve the patients at the hospital. There will be a training program on March 7th from 9:00am to 3:00pm that I will be leading alongside other spiritual care volunteers. If you are interested in getting involved with spiritual care at the hospital, please contact me at bpascal@pcjh.org.

Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, forever and ever! Amen.

Happy New Year,
~Pastor Ben

Meet the PCJH Staff

There have been many changes in the PCJH staff over the course of 2014. We thought you would like to see a list of who does what. Many of the staff are part-time employees and a few are full-time employees. They all work as a team and everyone has very specific roles and functions that provide support to PCJH's mission and ministry to Jackson Hole. On Sunday, January 4th, we will commission the new staff and lay hands on them and pray over them at both worship services.

From our October 2014 survey one suggestion that came up several times was a LADIES BOOK CLUB.

HOW ABOUT A ONE TIME DINNER COMMITMENT. Would you like to be part of a 3-4 course Progressive Dinner with other church members and friends? Start out at a home with appetizers; move on to a main course and end up with dessert? These evenings are such a fun way to visit and open your homes to other PCJH friends. Hopefully, enough people will respond so we can schedule these close to your neighborhoods! Please rsvp to cindydahlin@hotmail.com and include your physical address.

THANK YOU so much for making this a winter tradition.

Lindsey was born and raised in Portland, Oregon. From a young age she has been an avid skier and has had a strong love for the mountains. This pulled her to Colorado, where she graduated from the University of Denver with a BA in Environmental Science and a Masters in Business, plus a thorough introduction to the Rocky Mountains.

She moved to Jackson in the Fall of 2009 to continue her mountain experiences. Despite her love and appreciation for this place, she found herself feeling lost. She did not grow up in the Church, but in the Fall of 2011, felt called to attend. In the Spring of 2012 she accepted the Lord and began opening her heart to His plans for her life. Since then she has been attending and is engaged at River Crossing.

She is hoping to grow in her service to the Church in the Jackson community through her Communications position at PCJH. Still passionate about skiing, she is also coaching the Jackson Hole High School Ski Team. Ultimately, she is interested in pursuing His callings on her life in Jackson and beyond.

Ice Lanterns: As we begin fundraising for our June High School Mission Trip we want to extend an overwhelming and much appreciated THANK YOU! We were so blessed this year because we surpassed the past 3 years of this fundraiser in sales and money raised! Praise God! All the proceeds will go to support our mission trip. The church family we have at PCJH is very giving and it is a blessing to have people who acknowledge the value in our youth and who are ready to invest their time, treasure, and talent. Yes, 'invest', and I used the word 'invest' very intentionally. As Pastor Ben says, "We are always one generation away from a generation that doesn't love God and/or have a relationship with His Son, Jesus." So when you, the people the church family, purchased an ice lantern we know you are purchasing a decorative Christmas item but even greater than that you are making a commitment and an investment in our youth. So a THANK YOU written on here and/or in person from one of our many youth can never grasp the depth of gratitude and appreciation we have for your continued support!

High School Mission Trip: The High School Mission Trip dates & location will be announced in January. We will have two information meetings about the trip.

- 1) Wednesday, Jan. 21 6:45-7:45pm
- 2) Sunday, Jan. 25 11:30-12:30pm

A WORD FROM ASSOCIATE PASTOR STEVE WEBER

INSTRUCTIONS FOR A NEW YEAR STARTUP

Whenever our family gets together we often watch a hilarious routine on DVD by our favorite stand-up comic, Brian Regan. His routine has made its way into our everyday conversations and has become the source material for all sorts of inside family jokes. Situations will crop up and we will look at one another, smile knowingly, and then re-tell the joke for one another. One of our favorites is his bit about toasting pop tarts. He is astounded that the pop tart box has instructions: “How do I get all that goodness inside me? Can there really be more than one step to toasting a pop tart? Step One: Toast it.” Well, you will just have to watch it for yourself.

So we have a new year before us. Not quite as simple as toasting pop tarts, I suppose. Surely, if pop tarts come with instructions then the totality of 365 new, unblemished, mysterious days of promise and possibility ought to come with some type of easy to follow directions. I know what you are thinking: the revealed Word of God – the Bible – provides such help. I won't argue with you. Nothing wrong with the Bible (and I hope you will include a daily devotional time in your New Year plan), but for our purposes I thought it might be helpful to package some start-up instructions for 2015 in a simple format. So what follows are steps to be completed in order for this upcoming year to be one of meaning and joy:

1. Unwrap It – By this I mean, treat the New Year as if it really is new and not more of the same. “The old has passed away, the new has come,” the apostle Paul wrote of our life in Christ. Here's our opportunity to give that theology a test run. What can you honestly leave behind and what can you embrace with the hope of a new beginning?
2. Bless It – You know how you talk at the outset of a vacation or a new job? “This is going to be a great trip!” “This is the best job I have ever had!” We need to give our blessing to the year to come. Bless it and it most likely will be.
3. Brave It – How's your courage for adventure? A New Year means new challenges. Psalm 27:1 shouts to us on January 1: “The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?” We can step boldly into the unknown. God's presence is lighting the way.
4. Give It – All the experts in personal health and wholeness agree that one of the key attributes of happy, adjusted people is that they give themselves away to others and to worthy causes. Of course the experts are following the counsel of Jesus: “You're blessed when you care. At the moment of being care-full, you find yourselves cared for” (The Message, Matthew 5).
5. Love It – Isn't life itself amazing? Get up with the sun. Walk through the woods. Stand on a mountain. Lay down in a field. Wade in the surf. Ski in the moonlight. This year presents some spectacular opportunities to simply be in awe of life itself. I can't wait to see it unfold.
6. Trust It – By the sovereign providence of God the New Year will be what it will be. To trust God's will is to relax into the provision of God no matter what. Here's the line I appreciate: “Don't try to make things happen in your own strength. Let God do it His way.” (Joel Osteen)
7. Believe It – There is no time like the present to renew your faith in the One who graciously gives us each dawn. “Choose you this day whom you will serve” (Joshua 24). Every day is a day to believe in the biggest idea ever presented – God in Christ has come as the fullest expression of His desire to be united with us, to be our foremost Friend. You might want to start each day by looking in the mirror and simply saying, “Lord, I believe.”

“Therefore, my beloved, be steadfast, immovable, always excelling in the work of the Lord, because you know that in the Lord your labor is not in vain.”

1 Corinthians 15:58

Ski Shuttle Outreach - PCJH sits near the base of one of the nation's finest backcountry ski locations. Every day skiers and boarders drive to the top of Teton Pass, leave their vehicles, hike to pristine slopes and slide to the bottom of the pass. You may have seen them there with their thumbs out in hopes someone will stop and give them a lift back to the top of the pass.

Why not us? This month we begin a new outreach ministry by simply using the vehicles God has given us to use in ministry. Our plan is be available to give rides to skiers and boarders back to the top of the pass several Saturday mornings each month during the winter. In this way we can serve others where they are and strike up new friendships with a large community in Jackson Hole.

Want to be a part of this new venture? Come to a brief informational meeting following the 10:15 a.m. worship service on Sunday, January 4, in Pastor Steve's office. We need people who would like to drive the church bus (training provided) up and down the pass. And people who like to do a bit of skiing themselves. Let's go meet our community where it gathers!

Daily Bible Reading Guide – 2015 Is 2015 the year for you to read through the Bible? It may not be as foreboding as we think. Pick up your daily reading guide in the church lobby. Each day of the year has been assigned approximately 3-4 chapters of the Bible (about 10 minutes reading time). You can do it! And you will be glad you did.

Many Thanks - Our Advent season was blessed by the production of our very own homemade Advent Devotional Book. Thank you to all our contributors for sharing your faith, hearts and insightful thoughts each day leading up to Christmas. It was so meaningful to read each devotion and to come to know you all better in this way. Let's plan to write another booklet next Advent! Thank you all.

Sunday Morning Adult Classes

January sees the continuation of two classes at 9 a.m. each Sunday morning:

- Strength for His People: Kathy Robertson leads this study for individuals and families of the mentally ill. It meets in the Matthew classroom. Based on the book by Dr. Stephen Waterhouse the course seeks to provide a place of hope and encouragement while also providing help to equip families and the church who struggle with mental illness. January's classes will focus on four topics:
 - o Jan. 4: Mental Illness is not a Myth
 - o Jan. 11: Family and Society Responses
 - o Jan. 18: Mental Illness and the Bible
 - o Jan. 25: Where Do We Go From Here?
- The Gospel of Matthew: Pastor Steve Weber leads this walk through of the first book of the New Testament. It meets in the Genesis classroom. Matthew's gospel narrative focuses on two main themes: Who is Jesus? and "What is the Church?" Currently the group is looking at the Sermon on the Mount in Matthew 5-7. Each class session stands all on its own so it is never too late to come and be a part of the class.

Wednesday Evening Adult Classes

We will offer three great class options at 6:45 p.m. each Wednesday after our Fellowship Dinner:

- Financial Peace University: Colter and Alli Lane will lead the next segment in this vital course based on the best-selling author Dave Ramsey's popular course. The course will meet in the Genesis classroom. FPU teaches God's ways of handling money. Through video teaching, class discussions and interactive small group activities, FPU presents biblical, practical steps to get from where you are to where you've dreamed you could be. This plan will show you how to get rid of debt, manage your money, spend and save wisely, and much more!
- Courageous: A Guy's Study: Pastor Ben Pascal leads this course for men of all ages, but especially for men who are raising children. The course will meet in the Matthew classroom. Based on the movie "Courageous," the class will take a deeper look into significant issues raised in the movie. Study topics include; Parenting Roles & Responsibilities, Integrity and Mentoring & Discipling your children.
- C.S. Lewis and The Screwtape Letters: Pastor Steve Weber leads this course reading and reflecting on Lewis' entertaining and enlightening series of letters from a senior devil, Screwtape, to a junior devil concerning how best to trip up Christians. This class will meet in the Luke classroom. Lewis' insight into the danger spots of the Christian life is astounding and helps us stand up straighter in our walk with Jesus.
