Five More Memorable Bible Verses to Commit to Memory

Ephesians 2:8-9

For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith—and this not from yourselves, it is the gift of God—not by works, so that no one can boast.

2 Corinthians 5:17

Therefore, if anyone is in Christ he is a new creation; the old has gone, the new has come!

Isaiah 40:30-31

Even youths grow tired and weary, and young men stumble and fall; but those who hope in the Lord will renew their strength. They will soar on wings like eagles; they will run and not grow weary, they will walk and not be faint.

Romans 8:38-39

For I am convinced that neither death nor life, neither angels nor demons, neither the present nor the future, nor any powers, neither height nor depth, nor anything else in all creation, will be able to separate us from the love of God that is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Psalms 27:1

The Lord is my light and my salvation—whom shall I fear? The Lord is the stronghold of my life—of whom shall I be afraid?

Every Member a Minister

Dear PCJH Family,

Grace and peace to you from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God every time I remember you. In all my prayers for all of you, I always pray with joy because of your partnership in the gospel from the first day until now, being confident of this, that he who began a good work in you will carry it on to completion until the day of Christ Jesus.
~Philippians 1:2-6

Holy Week

Palm Sunday is the beginning of Holy Week on March 29th, 2015. On Palm Sunday we remember Jesus' triumphal and humble entry into Jerusalem while riding on a donkey. People waved palm branches as a way to welcome him and as a sign of who he was... the Messiah.

The joyous celebration didn't last long. Four days later, one of Jesus' disciples, Judas, betrayed him and arranged for the authorities to arrest him. Maundy Thursday is the day we remember Jesus' Last Supper with his disciples and the night he was betrayed and taken away. This all happened late in the evening while Jesus was praying in the Garden of Gethsemane, and while his disciples dozed off.

Good Friday is the day we remember Jesus being crucified on the cross. It is a day of mourning and darkness as we remember the horrible suffering and death he endured on our behalf.

Saturday is a day in between death and resurrection. It reminds us of the reality of sin and death in our world as we await the hope of new life.

Easter Sunday is the day we remember Jesus rising from the dead. It is a day of celebration and joy as we proclaim the good news of the resurrection. Jesus said, "Behold, I am making all things new!" Amen!

I encourage you all to not let Holy Week slip by this year. We are often tempted to simply go from Palm Sunday to Easter Sunday, without taking time to consider the cost of the cross. Take some intentional time to engage in the story of Jesus Christ and what he did for humanity... what he did for you. Like every year, we will provide you with many opportunities to make Holy Week a transformational week in your life. Now it's up to you... here is the schedule for PCJH as we celebrate Holy Week in 2015...

- Palm Sunday, March 29th, at 8:00am and 10:15am at PCJH.
- Maundy Thursday, April 2nd at 7:00pm in the Chapel. We will celebrate the Lord's Supper at a table for 12 as we remember the Last Supper. There will also be a ceremonial hand washing as you enter the chapel.
- Good Friday, April 3rd, we will all have the opportunity to do a self-guided meditative walk through the Stations of the Cross in the Sanctuary anytime from 9:00am to 6:45pm. The Stations of the Cross is a way to remember the journey Christ took to Calvary. It takes at least 15 to 20 minutes to walk through the stations. I would recommend at least 30 minutes. Come anytime between 9:00am and 6:45pm, no appointments necessary, just come on by. At 7:00pm we will attend the Good Friday service at Shepherd of the Mountains Lutheran Church down the street.

- Easter Sunday, April 5th, there will be an Easter Sunrise Service at the summit of the gondola at Jackson Hole Mountain Resort. The gondola will begin loading at 6:05am and the service will start at 6:35am. The resort will be passing out free sight-seeing tickets and all guests will be required to download after the service. There will be NO 8:00am service that day. We will have a wonderful Easter celebration back at PCJH at 10:15am with wonderful music and the Lord's Supper.

April Agros Trip

Addie, Nina, and I are excited to be a part of our sixth Agros trip to Tierra Nueva in Nicaragua. We will be in Central America April 11th -19th. Our mission team consists of Scott, Donna and Vivian Barrett; Abby and Elaine Powell; Liz Sparks; Tom Montgomery; and Debbie Schlinger. Please keep us in your prayers as we travel and as we work and fellowship among the villagers of Tierra Nueva and the people of Nicaragua.

Church Information Class

I will be teaching a Church Information Class on Sunday, April 26th from 11:30am to 2:00pm. Lunch and childcare provided. This class is for anyone who is interested in learning more about PCJH. We discuss things like church history, beliefs, programs, staff, church governance, budgets, and the membership process. While some people take the class simply to learn more about PCJH, it is also the first step in becoming a member, although membership is not an expectation for those who attend the class. Please RSVP with Jo Holton at jholton@pcjh.org if you'd like to attend.

Remembering Karen Colclough

This time of year brings back painful memories of last April when we lost our dear friend and sister in Christ, Karen Colclough. Karen was murdered in Nicaragua while on a mission trip with PCJH. Karen's death continues to trouble me, while in the midst of it all, I cling to the hope of the resurrection. After all, we celebrated Karen's life on the evening of Easter Sunday last year, Resurrection Day. She lived out Christ's love and grace like no other. She and Jesus had a lot in common. Not only do they share the same birthday, but they both were a bright light in our world. Karen was an amazing person who cared deeply for others. I will never forget her. As a way to remember Karen, I have asked the Council to consider creating some sort of Karen Colclough memorial on our church campus. We are planning on purchasing (or building) a nice bench with a plaque to be placed outside the fellowship hall as a way for us all to remember Karen, her commitment to Christ, and to her fellow neighbor. If you would like to help with this project, please let me know.

"Behold, I am making all things new!"
-Jesus Christ

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY

Although spring weather has settled into the valley a bit early, the Presbyterian Church Youth Ministries were able to squeeze in one last winter event, snow tubing at Snow King! With middle schoolers and high schoolers showing up at the church to board our bus, we had a fun crew that enjoyed spending a Sunday afternoon flying down the hill! Between racing, group tubing, and drinking hot chocolate, the middle schoolers and high schoolers were able to connect and bond outside of the church walls, which is key to forming true and lasting friendships for people of all ages! It is an exciting thing to watch the relationships blossom and bloom. While the CYF team cannot wait to see what spring brings for our youth, we ask for you to continue praying for this important ministry!

March brought the Children, Youth, and Family team their most successful Parents Night Out in history! How do we measure the success of a Parents Night Out, you may ask? It is not by the money we raise through donations, not by the amount of kids that come (67, our most yet!), nor by the tears that aren't shed. Instead, it is by the squeals and laughter heard throughout the building! There was a lot of it. For one night the church turns into an all-kid party, with fun had by nursery age kids all the way up to the teachers. With the church studying the "I Am" statements of Jesus, the CYF team chose "I am the Light of the World" for the theme of the night. With a craft and story time centered around the theme, the children went home at the end of the night with a little lantern and knowledge that Jesus is the Light of the world and, we need to help spread that light! A big thank you to all of the volunteers that stayed in so parents from around the community could go out, and a thank you to the parents for their generous donations!

March was full of fun. We finished with the Cross Country Ski School. We enjoyed an early Spring, and we continue to learn to love like Jesus! We learned about our five senses, how to take care of ourselves and how to eat healthy. We explored the produce department at Jackson Whole Grocer and bought ingredients for a yummy, healthy salad.

We are looking forward to Spring Break March 30-April 10.

When we come back to school in April, we will be learning about Nature All Around Us and discovering all the beauty of Jackson. We hope to visit some parks and will go to the Center for the Arts for a nature based art class.

GET IN ON THE GOOD STUFF!

ONE GREAT HOUR OF SHARING
EASTER SUNDAY – April 5, 2015
A Special offering of the Presbyterian Church (USA)

For more than fifty years, Presbyterians have joined with Christians throughout the nation in supporting One Great Hour of Sharing, responding to Christ's love for all people by joyfully sharing that love with people in need. The refugee and the stranger have found food and safe shelter; those stunned by the aftermath of disasters have found relief and help rebuilding; and communities seeking to take control of their future have found partners in development. Presbyterians' gifts support the work of The Presbyterian Committee for the Self-Development of People, Presbyterian Disaster Assistance, and the Presbyterian Hunger Program. The hundreds of millions of dollars Presbyterians have given over the last half-century have enabled a powerful witness to the love of the One who came that all might have life more abundantly. Disaster Assistance has helped, in Haiti, helping families survive and start to rebuild their lives; in Asia helping with long term rebuilding; all over the world feeding the hungry, helping them produce, store, and sell their food. For specifics on these and many other places where help was and is being rendered, go to www.pcusa.org, SEARCH for One Great Hour and click on each of the three areas of assistance mentioned above. It is amazing what your offerings have helped accomplish!

You may use the offering envelope in the bulletin or pick one up at the poster.

The Mission Committee appreciates the generous folks who are PCJH!!

A WORD FROM ASSOCIATE PASTOR STEVE WEBER

Making Another Run at Life

This month comes Easter. It is the time for springing forth, beginning again. In our hearts and minds we travel again to the old rugged cross on the outskirts of Jerusalem and there reflect on the life that was given and then in three days' time taken up again in wondrous resurrection. The great Easter truth is, in the words of German theologian, Wolfgang Pannenberg, "The evidence for Jesus' resurrection is so strong that nobody would question it except for two things: First, it is a very unusual event, and second, if you believe it happened, you have to change the way you live."

I love that about Easter. It is such a bold announcement, and in it we are given license to make another run at life, to change the way we live. Have you ever considered why forgiveness is such a big deal in our faith? Of all the points in Christian theology, forgiveness may be the primary idea to wrap our hearts and mind around. First up is to receive forgiveness for ourselves as a result of Jesus standing in for us to absorb the penalty of our sin. Second, is to become forgivers ourselves. "Bear with each other, and forgive whatever grievances you many have against one another. Forgive as the Lord forgave you," the apostle Paul wrote (Colossians 3:13). With this word comes the recognition that we have been hurt and we have caused hurt. It is part of being human. But we are also to take care of the hurt we experience and cause. In fact, forgiveness is apparently just what the doctor ordered. A recent Baltimore Sun article cites new research that forgiveness may be "medicine for the body."

Further, psychologist Loren Toussaint of Luther College in Iowa, has established a long-term link between health and the willingness to forgive. In a national survey he found forgiveness is rare. Only 52 percent of Americans said they had forgiven others for hurtful acts. But willingness of young respondents to forgive showed no link to health; that propensity began to make a difference as respondents approached middle age. The survey found that those 45 and older who forgive others were more likely to report having better overall mental and physical health than those who did not. So, those of us over 45 need to go for a run and begin a forgiveness routine to improve our health. Lewis Smedes, in his book Forgive and Forget, said the act of forgiving is simple, but it always happens "inside a storm of complex emotions. It is the hardest trick in the whole bag of personal relationships." Forgiveness, he wrote, happens in four stages:

- Hurt: When someone causes you pain so deep and unfair you cannot forget it
- Hate: When you cannot shake the memory of how much you were hurt and cannot wish your enemy well
- Healing: When you are able to see the person who hurt you in a new light
- The Coming Together: When you invite the person who hurt you back into your life and if he or she comes honestly, love can move you both toward a new and healed relationship

Forgiveness is giving up the right to get even. and that is hard. When something awful and unjust happens to us, it can take over our lives. It is easy and tempting to get stuck in bitterness and hate. That becomes then the cost of unforgiving. But Easter gives us license to make another run at life. It allows us to consider a different outcome, to give up all hope for a better past.

Easter comes to us once again, and the message of all the alleluias and the "He is Risen's" is that singular hope of a new beginning. We are given permission to seek and claim a new future, free and clear of the hurt and bitterness living can cause. May the risen Lord inspire us to re-consider our deeply held resentments and make another run at life.

Happy Easter! Happy Living!
