Week 5 - New Commands and a New Covenant

Worship Service

10:15am

October 11, 2015

The Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole is a church where every member is a minister, passing on the faith, as we...

Gather to love God and others;

Grow to know and follow Jesus; and

Go to make a difference in the world.

Thoughts for the Day

"Every one of us is, even from our mother's womb, a master craftsman of idols."

~John Calvin

"When anything in life is an absolute requirement for your happiness and self-worth, it is essentially an 'idol,' something you are actually worshipping."

~Tim Keller

"People worship idols – money, whatever. Their humanness gets reshaped around the idol – you become like what you worship. That's one of the basic spiritual laws."

~N.T. Wright

"Worshipping is stripping ourselves of our idols, even the most hidden ones, and choosing the Lord as the centre, as the highway of our lives."

~Pope Francis

"God gives his laws and commandments to free us, protect us, and show us his love... not to take away our fun and ruin our lives."

~Randy Frazee

Almighty God, from the moment of creation you have nurtured our souls. You have provided the nourishment by which we grow, shelter wherein we find safety, guidance for our life course, steadfast love that helps us gain self-confidence, and an eternal home upon which to focus during our temporal days. In Jesus you gave the perfect example of how your gifts work when someone is obedient to your leading. Thank you for all you have given to us.

God of grace and mercy, we find it so difficult to become all you have hoped we would be. Too easily we set our hearts and minds solely on things of this world. We become consumed with strivings for material gain and social status, with pursuits of power, destructive wars, pain and suffering. In such strivings we become lost. We break and become broken. Open our ears to hear you calling us to return. Open our hearts so we might humbly come back to you. Forgive us. Heal us. Restore us. Let us walk again as you created us to walk in the beginning. In Jesus name we pray. Amen.
