Come celebrate the special role that Father's serve in all our lives!!

Donations appreciated.

Welcome

Welcome New Members

We would like to welcome the following people as new members of PCJH.
Please be sure to welcome them to the church family!

Martha-Gray McKinney, Danny Weber, Ashleigh Walker
Mary Gridley, Susan Hawkins

Membership at PCJH is a way for people to publicly proclaim their faith in Jesus Christ and their commitment to the ministry and mission of the local church. Once someone becomes a member of PCJH, they are assigned a deacon who prays and cares for them. Members are also allowed to vote on important matters in the life of the church, serve as deacons, elders, and committee chairs. There are other perks and discounts related to our children, youth, and family fee-based ministries.

In order to become a member, we ask people to attend one of our quarterly church information classes. After attending the class and having any questions answered about their personal faith and the church, the individual attends one of our Church Session meetings where they are asked four questions of faith in front of the Ruling Elders and then accepted into membership. If you are interested in becoming a new member, our next Church Information Class will be held on Sunday, July 10th from 11:30am to 2:00pm (lunch and childcare provided). Please RSVP with Cindy Dahlin at cdahlin@pcjh.org if you are interested in attending.

A WORD FROM PASTOR BEN PASCAL

Every Member a Minister

Dear PCJH Family,

I've heard it said that the only constant in life is change. Change can be exciting and difficult. The good news is that we serve a God who does not change. Jesus Christ was, is, and will always be our Rock and our Salvation amidst the changes in life. Amen!

As many of you already know, Sunday May 29th was Steve Weber's last Sunday with us as our temporary associate pastor. I remember the day Steve walked into the doors of PCJH and told me he had recently moved to the area. It was during a very difficult week for me when I was wondering whom God might be calling as our temporary associate pastor back in August 2014. I am forever grateful for how God orchestrated Steve and Cindy Weber's arrival to the Jackson Hole community and for calling Steve to serve alongside me these past 20 months.

I am so incredibly thankful for Steve's calm and collected presence; his wisdom and guidance; his confidence and encouragement; his love for God's creation; his wonderful sense of humor; his easy going personality; his love for Jesus and his faithfulness in ministry to PCJH and the Jackson Hole community. It was so wonderful to have a partner in ministry with Steve and to share a common theology and philosophy of ministry. I believe God brought Steve to us for such a time as this. Steve has helped us arrive at an exciting new chapter in our life as a congregation. Let's be sure to thank Steve for all he has done for us and for the Lord.

I am also grateful for Steve's wife Cindy, who has been such a kind and compassionate member of our church. It is wonderful to have someone like Cindy serving in our community in real tangible ways as a nursing professor. She has also taught classes at PCJH and has served in many other ways alongside Steve and others in our church. Thank you Cindy! Thank you Steve!

Many of you are aware of our denomination's policy in regards to departing pastors. The official policy of the Presbytery of Wyoming is that all pastors (whether temporary or installed; whether senior pastors or associate pastors) are asked to remove themselves from the life of the local congregation for one year. The reason for this is to allow the congregation to find its identity separate from the former pastor and to allow the new pastor to bond and attach to the congregation. I know this is difficult for all of us as Steve is such a wonderful person and we all love him so much. However, I have a strong feeling Steve will be an integral part of our congregation at some point in the future.

This brings me to my next point. By the time you read this, the Associate Pastor Nominating Committee (APNC) will be close to announcing the nominee for our new associate pastor. This is an exciting time as we consider as a congregation who God is calling to serve our church and community.

Once the APNC announces the nominee, we will invite the candidate out to Jackson to meet the congregation and to preach during our Sunday morning worship service. We will have a congregational meeting after worship to officially vote on calling the nominee as our associate pastor and also vote on their terms of call (i.e. compensation package). This will most likely all take place in the month of June.

The associate pastor will then move to Jackson over the summer and start work by September 1st. In the fall we will have an installation service to formally install the candidate as our associate pastor.

I would like to thank our APNC for their extraordinary work as they sifted through 60 applicants and narrowed it down to two exceptional candidates. They did the hard work of discernment as they listened, discussed and prayed to God to help them decide whom God is calling to PCJH. Please be sure to thank the following people for the incredible amount of time, energy and prayer they put into selecting our new associate pastor.

Thank you to Sue Unruh (Chair), Melissa Snider, Tom Jordan, Irene Lund, Karen Brennan, Aaron Nydam, and Warren Myers.

I am looking forward to my new partner in ministry and continuing to fight the good fight with all of you as we GATHER to love God and one another; GROW to know and follow Jesus; and GO to make a difference in the world. I continue to be honored and humbled to serve as your Senior Pastor. Exciting years are ahead of us!

*Now to him who is able to do immeasurably more than all we ask or imagine, according to his power that is at work within us, to him be glory in the church and in Christ Jesus throughout all generations, for ever and ever!
Amen.*

In Christ,

~Ben

Rummage Sale Set-up at the Fairgrounds Building

June 11

8am-12noon

The PCJH Rummage Sale at the Fairgrounds Building

The logo for the Rummage Sale. The word "Rummage" is written in a black, hand-drawn, slightly irregular font. Below it, the word "SALE" is written in a similar font, but each letter is contained within a separate colored square: 'S' is blue, 'A' is yellow, 'L' is blue, and 'E' is yellow.

RUMMAGE SALE WRAP UP

The PCJH Rummage Sale could not take place without the help of the volunteers who dedicate time and energy to our BIG event. This year was no exception.

Each year our very first and dedicated volunteer is Dean Lewis who provides his Delcon trailer for our collections three weeks in advance of our event. Thank you Dean and Delcon. Your unfailing help for our event is so appreciated.

Likewise, Christie and Garth Gillespie share their time and truck for pick up and delivery throughout the Rummage Sale season. Thank you both and to Jackson Hole Real Estate Associates for your generosity!

Every year we ask Krista Schuman and Teton Trash for the extra large bin to use during our sale and they very willingly and without charge help us. Thank you once again!

Other community members and businesses as well give their time, materials and talent like Pamela Stockton of Stockton and Shirk Interiors who helps price special items. Albertsons donates banner space on their storefront, Kmart donates the myriad of racks for the thousands of pieces of clothing we need to display.

We also want to thank the Community Foundation for tents and supplies which keep us from buying more gear for storage year after year.

Close to home, Irene and I want to thank the long list of volunteers who set up, sort, price, sell and cook for the volunteers. And a big thank you to the clean up crew, a big job which is almost as daunting as the set up! The PCJH Rummage Sale is BIG. It is really hard work but is also worth the effort year after year.

Stewardship Update

Our target for PCJH's 2016 budget for tithes and offerings is $930,735, or $22,701 more than our target for 2015, which we met through your generosity and prayers.

We're currently $10,309 ahead of where we were in gifts to the church at this time last year, which, when added to our increase in target from last year, puts us $12,392 behind goal.

Giving back to the Lord is a cornerstone of our tradition and essential to our spiritual practice as a faith.

There are many ways to give in addition to the moment of contemplation when baskets are passed in worship ...

You may mail a check to the Church office (please don't send cash through the mails).

You may contribute by clicking on the yellow Donate button on the bottom right of the screen on our Church's website PCJH.org.

You may arrange for periodic contributions to be made from your checking account by contacting your bank and asking about "recurring bill pay" or ACH.

You may contribute by texting a dollar amount to 307 200 2175. (You will be asked to provide billing information the first time you send a text.)

You may arrange for one-time or periodic contributions to be made from your credit or debit card accounts by contacting Kim Bogen through the Church office at KBogen@PCJH.org.

Thank you for your generosity and prayers.

Yours in Christ, Stewardship Team PCJH

LITTLE LAMBS

How is it almost the end of the school year?!
 We had our annual Mother's Day Muffin Brunch and spent 2 weeks learning about DINOSAURS!!! It was a blast! We look forward to enjoying Bike Week & some local parks the last 2 weeks of school.

Thanks for another wonderful year!!!!
 There are still a few spots for 2016-2017 Little Lambs classes.

Last Day of Little Lambs– June 10th
Happy Summer!!!!

SUMMER SERIES

Saint Paul said, "The only thing that counts is faith expressing itself through love" (Galatians 5:6). St. James added, "I will show you my faith by what I do, and "As the body without the Spirit is dead, so faith without deeds is dead." (James 2:18; 2:26).

Have you ever wanted to express your faith in the community and the World and yet didn't quite know how or where to fit in? This summer members of PCJH are going to tell their stories of how they are being Christ's witnesses and hands and feet in our community and around the world. Each Sunday morning starting at 9am, one or two people will tell about their specific project or organization that is spreading love. This will be your chance to witness the wide range of activities people are doing in Jackson and around the world and see if any of them are ones that would appeal to you to become involved in.

The series is titled, "It's Sunday but Monday is coming." Watch the bulletin and the Pinnacle for each week's line-up. Already committed are: Habitat for Humanity, Young Life, World Concern, Agros, JH Classical Academy, A Christian Ministry in the National Parks, Compassion International, Romanian ministry, Nairobi Orphanage, Palestinian Christians and many more. Plan on spending this hour on Sunday mornings during the summer becoming inspired by the worldwide outreach emanating from our small church in Jackson, Wyoming.

A Christian Ministry in the National Parks

ALL
WELCOME

For more than 60 years, ACMNP has provided interdenominational worship for people who live, work, and vacation in our National Parks. This summer over 200 college and seminary students are in 30 National Parks; they work for concessionaires in the Parks and conduct worship services on Sundays in campgrounds and lodges; they also reach out to fellow employees. There are 13 students in GTNP this summer. Several people in our congregation are on the 'local support committee'. If you or visitors should be camping in the Park or driving through in the evening, you may wish to attend a service. Here is the schedule of services.

A Christian Ministry InThe National Parks offers interdenominational services each Sunday at the following locations, listed north to south and identified on the map in the free Park newspaper, The Teewinot. Informal dress encouraged.

A Snowy Morning in May Pastor Steve Weber

Yesterday, snow lay heavy on the tulip petals, my mown lawn hidden beneath a thin layer of January. In slippers and fuzzy warm pajama bottoms, I went out into it and framed a few photos just for proof that we really did have snow in May. Surely it won't last past the morning news, I considered, but by mid-morning when I drove to town a hard, slashing snow pattered against the hood. A weird day; something of a transitory day, a reminder of all the possibilities in the mountains, lest we ever forget.

I suspect we don't forget too often what is possible. Life is constantly shifting, orienting toward a new star or pattern. Just as the snow was dripping from the eaves, one of my daughters called to say the child growing within her is a girl, stemming the tide of little boys my kids have been bringing forth in recent days. Standing in the garage listening to her voice, it seemed there was an ever-so-slight shift in the universe, as I considered her future days replete with two little ones. So many possibilities to adjust to.

Emerson once observed, "People wish to be settled; only as far as they are unsettled is there any hope for them." It must have snowed on his tulips the day that thought came to him. If I understand his drift, I believe he was saying something about the shifting nature of life, and how common it is to desire the settled life while finding a source of hope in the unsettled. Weird people, too.

On the cover of the program, at my ordination service, all those years ago were these words from Psalm 16: "You have made known to me the path of life; you will fill me with joy in your presence." It seemed appropriate on that day and still does. The path of life has never quite been a fully settled one but as it has been made known to me there has been a fullness to it. I have discovered and maybe you have too that there is, by faith in Christ, a "settled unsettledness."

All of this to say how much I have appreciated this part of the path with you all at PCJH. As my time with you comes to a close it is with that sense of settled unsettledness. People keep asking me if I am now retired and one fellow recently insisted I am retired regardless of my assurances I am not. Cindy and I treasure so much about PCJH and our brief time with you these past two years. You met us at a bit of a tender time following Cindy's recovery and welcomed us into this truly accepting and gracious family of Christ. We will continue to live in Teton Valley, Idaho, Cindy will continue to teach new nurses in Jackson and I am in conversation with other churches who have a "temporary" pastor role to fill. That part of the path is not quite clear yet, as I am open to something more as God leads, but I do know how good it has been to walk with you these past few years. From the beginning my title has been "Temporary" but it has never seemed temporary. I think we had a settled unsettledness.

Jesus often encountered the mortality and precarious fears of his disciples while on a stormy reach in a small boat. While it all seemed overwhelmingly unsettled to the disciples, Jesus was never bothered by the rocking and the splashing. As it has been said, He is the unmoved mover, the only true anchor in shifting times. It has been a joy to share in that hope with you. Thanks again for welcoming us into the heart of PCJH and showing us more of the depth of God's heart.
