"Sweet surrender is all that I have to give."

~Sarah McLachlan

"Let us then have no other employment, no other ambition but that of uniting our will to the most merciful will of God, and let us be well assured that this will be our salvation even when we imagine that all is lost."

~Jean Pierre de Caussade

"Psalm 46:10 tells us there is a kind of knowing that comes in silence and not in words – but first we must be still. The Hebrew word translated 'Be still' literally means 'Let go of your grip.'"

~Ruth Haley Barton

WE GATHER IN GRATEFUL WORSHIP

Song of Gathering

Standing in the Need of Prayer
(see insert - starting with the refrain)

Welcome and Opening Prayer

Songs of Praise

Blessed Be Your Name
Take My Life (Hymn 391)

Prayer of Confession

Gracious God, Forgive us those times when we consider ourselves to be of little value. Remind us constantly that you died for us long before we even knew you. We want to move forward with you, Lord, but are held back by burdens we carry, afraid to let go, lessen the load, let ourselves become vulnerable to be loved and in turn love, to receive and in turn give. We desire to move toward you, Lord, but our ways are often not your ways. Open our hearts to forgiveness, and let them touch the hearts of others, that all might be blessed and in turn become a blessing. (Moment of silent confession)
