Sermon Notes:

Worship Service 10:15am November 5, 2017

Thoughts for the Day

"If we do not perceive our wretchedness and poverty, we will never know how desirable is that remedy that Christ has brought to us."

-John Calvin

"How many things must you know that you may live and die in the blessedness of [God's] comfort? Three. First, the greatness of my sin and wretchedness. Second, how I am freed from all my sins and their wretched consequences. Third, what gratitude I owe to God for such redemption."

-The Heidelberg Catechism

"Lord Jesus, you are my righteousness, I am your sin. You took on you what was mine; yet set on me what was yours. You became what you were not, that I might become what I was not."

-Martin Luther

"The gospel is this: We are more sinful and flawed in ourselves than we ever dared believe, yet at the very same time we are more loved and accepted in Jesus Christ than we ever dared hope."

Song of Praise

Lord, I Need You

Prayer of Confession¹

One: Dear friends, Jesus says to us, "Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light." Let us confess to the Lord the sin that so deeply burdens us.

All: Gracious God, our sins are too heavy to carry, too real to hide, and too deep to undo. Forgive what our lips tremble to name, what our hearts can no longer bear, and what has become for us a consuming fire of judgment. Set us free from a past that we cannot change; open to us a future in which we can be changed; and grant us grace to grow more and more in your likeness and image; through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen.
