A WORD FROM PASTOR BEN PASCAL

Dear PCJH Family,

Our vision is to see lives being transformed in Jesus Christ.

Our mission is to be a community rooted in Christ, reaching out in love.

In 2018 we have five strategic focus areas we are pouring our energy into in order to live out our vision and accomplish our mission. I thought I would give you an update on each of the 2018 strategic focus areas now that we are a quarter of the way into the year.

1. Embed the Bible throughout PCJH

Key Objective: to empower all members to make Scripture a foundational and active part of their lives, as they apply God's Word both in their personal life and in our church life as we serve together.

Update: the vision team has met to discuss various ways of accomplishing this objective. For starters we have ordered several study bibles and devotionals that are available in the church lobby for anyone who might need one to help them get into God's Word. Our elders have also been equipped to begin each and every committee meeting with a time for Scripture reflection and prayer so that we ensure that, "we are the people of God before we do the work of the people of God." There are also plans in motion to begin congregational wide Scripture memorization. Details to be revealed soon!

2. Reinitalize Children's Ministry

Key Objective: to develop a thriving, comprehensive, Biblically-based ministry with faithful, dedicated volunteers who provide leadership, vision, and energy in order to reach more children and their parents with the love of God in Jesus Christ.

Update: the children's ministry team continues to meet in order to enlarge and equip our pool of volunteers and to reassess our milestones ministry and Sunday School curriculum. This summer we will have a Spanish speaking camp counselor whose main objective will be to reach out to the Latino community to help integrate our Spanish speaking friends into JOY Summer Camp.

3. Ignite Youth Ministries

Key Objective: to develop a sustainable, vital youth ministry, instilling in the congregation a vision of what it means to be a dynamic, motivated people for Christ that fully includes youth.

Update: our youth ministry team continues to meet regularly as they cast vision for our church's ministry to middle and high school students. Starting June 1, Liz Collins will be our full-time youth and young adult coordinator. Liz has been our part-time interim youth coordinator and now she will have much more time to dedicate to our vital youth ministry. Plans are already in the works for some fun summer events in order to reach teenagers with the hope of Jesus Christ. Reach out to Liz if you would like to get plugged in.

4. Invest in Young Adult Ministries

Key Objective: to develop a thriving, vital young adult ministry, that comes alongside young adults, (ages 18 to thirty-something) as they establish their beliefs in Christ and deepen their faith. Update: Starting June 1, Liz Collins will be our full-time youth and young adult coordinator. One aspect of her job is to oversee the Ascent ministry to young adults. If you are interested in serving on this team, please contact Liz. We have also entered into a new partnership with Whitworth University in Spokane, WA (a Presbyterian College) in order to provide a summer fellowship for a Whitworth student interested in going into the ministry. This summer we have the privilege of hosting Sarah Scott as she explores her gifts in ministry at PCJH.

5. Build a Vibrant Small Group Ministry

Key Objective: to build a structured small group ministry of equipped and faithful lay leaders in order to encourage and challenge every person who calls PCJH their church home to participate in a small group.

Update: Our adult ministry team has been meeting in order to form a special small group ministry task force. We have recruited a few people to join this team and are looking for a few more. Please let Tammy know if you are interested. They are planning to go to a small group workshop this Spring in order to learn more about how to build an effective small group ministry at PCJH beginning this Fall.

As you can see, we have made some great progress on our vision in the first three months of 2018. Please continue to pray for the ministry and mission of PCJH as well as consider how you will give of your time, talent and treasure so that we can live into our vision to see lives being transformed in Jesus Christ as we accomplish our mission to be a community rooted in Christ, reaching out in love.

On the journey with you,

Ben

CLERKS CORNER

To further live into the new vision statement of embedding the bible into the life of the church, Session opened their meeting with a devotional from the Word-Share-Prayer program. The passage for study was from John 13: 34-35 - Love One Another. Afterwards, Session welcomed two new members to PCJH in addition to two members from a special meeting on Sunday, March 18th: Tom and Melanie Hall, Andi Keenan Doran and Joni Upsher.

Kathy updated Session on the Vision Teams progress for making the bible more accessible to the congregation. Twelve NIV study bibles have been ordered and will soon be available for anyone who needs one. In addition to this, study guides and devotionals have been ordered, and will be available in the lobby. Tammy updated Session on the new structure of the Deacon program. Session was excited to see the new direction and energy generated by the creation of new service teams and the opportunities it opens to the congregation as a whole. More details about the Deacons will be coming soon.

PCJH RUMMAGE SALE JUNE 9TH

Spring has arrived and is a good reminder to do some Spring cleaning in our homes.

The Annual PCJH Rummage Sale is June 9th, 8am-12pm, but it is not too early to start setting aside items we no longer use or need.

Your trash can be some one else's treasure.

The Delcon Trailer will be positioned at the PCJH parking lot on 5/7 through 6/5 and you can start dropping off donations after service on Sundays 11:30-12:30 and when you are picking up your children from school 2:30-3:30pm. Thank you, Dean Lewis, for lending us the trailer once again this year.

Items needed: all household and decorative items, linens small furniture (no desks, filing cabinets or sofa beds), camping gear, clothing items (excluding pants for adults), toys, jewelry and collectables, garden accessories and all tools and sports gear.

For some of you who may not have any items to donate, providing lunch for the volunteers or coffee, water and donuts for the day of the sale would be greatly appreciated.

Volunteering at the Fair Building for one shift or more to sort and set up for the sale which takes an entire week and lots of help is more fun than you would think. Working the day of the sale is great fun too.

The Rummage Sale is an all church event and a great way to meet other church members and serve our community. Questions or to sign up to volunteer contact: Irene Lund at Irene.lund13@gmail.com 310-993-7485 or Diane Nichols at dianehnichols@gmail.com 303-748-7138.

A WORD FROM PASTOR TAMMY

Raising Our Ebenezers

As a church staff, we have been richly blessed by reading together Dr. Mary Neal's book, Seven Lessons from Heaven. Many of you know Dr. Neal is an orthopedic and spinal surgeon here in Jackson and is a part of PCJH's family. Our staff conversations and introspections have been wonderfully enhanced and encouraged by the amazing story of Mary's experience. If you haven't picked up the book yet, I strongly urge you to do so. I guarantee you will find yourself on holy ground.

In her last chapter, Dr. Neal makes an important suggestion to create memory markers, or Ebenezers, to help us recall the important times of God's faithfulness. In Biblical times whenever there was an experience of God's active presence, the Israelites would "raise an Ebenezer" to commemorate it. Mary encourages the reader to do the same; "The Ebenezers we incorporate into our daily lives help us remember our journey of trust." (pg. 246)

"To remember" is a very important concept of our faith. God constantly calls us to remember God's acts of providence; to remember His promises; to remember His commandments; to remember who we are and whose we are. It appears God knows we have memory issues. This is not new. When the freed Israelites were wandering around the desert during a time of scarcity and uncertainty, they complained and murmured to Moses, "if only we were back in Egypt..." They had "forgotten" that the Lord God had provided their every need, including the miraculous way of parting the Red Sea and bringing them out of slavery. They could only see their current situation.

Often times when we go through unwanted or unexpected changes, we can only see our current situation. During those "wilderness" experiences it is difficult to remember God's faithfulness. We may ask ourselves, "How in the world is God going to deal with this?" That's when we need our Ebenezers.

Losing memory is a difficult process. Sure it can be funny when we forget little things like where we put our keys. It's not so funny when we walk with loved ones afflicted with dementia, stroke, brain disorders, or Alzheimer's. We anguish over the deterioration of their memory. We want them to remember their histories, those special events, and beloved people. Memory plays a critical role in providing us a context for our present day lives. Likewise, memories of God's faithfulness and providence are critical to our present life. Our faith story has a past and that past has shaped us for who we are today.

The Jews began celebrating the holiday of Passover on the first anniversary of their freedom from Egypt when they entered Israel. For thousands of years, Passover is celebrated with the saying from Exodus 13, "Then Moses said to the people, "Commemorate this day, the day you came out of Egypt, out of the land of slavery, because the Lord brought you out of it with a mighty hand." We are not to forget God's great deliverance.

During this season of Easter (which last for 50 days), we are invited to remember God's great faithfulness of sending Jesus, to die that we might have life. One of Jesus' last words given to the disciples on the night he was betrayed was, "Do this in remembrance of me." Every time we celebrate the Lord's Supper, every time we pray, every time we open the Scriptures, every time we come to worship, every time we raise our Ebenezers, we affirm that our Lord has been present in our past, is present in our present, and will be present in our future. Happy Easter.
