Dr. Mary Neal Shares at the Presbyterian Church of Jackson Hole

On Sunday, May 6th, at 11:30AM, we are honored and blessed to host a special event with Dr. Mary Neal, author of #1 New York Times Bestselling books, To Heaven and Back and 7 Lessons From Heaven: How Dying Taught Me to Live a Joy-Filled Life. Dr. Neal is an orthopedic surgeon here in Jackson specializing in spinal surgeries and is a member of PCJH. Mary will be sharing about her near death experience (NDE), which she describes in her books, and also about the lessons she learned about God's presence and purpose. There will be time set aside for questions and answers. Free lunch will be provided and is open to the public so invite your friends!

This will be a remarkable event you will not want to miss!

A WORD FROM PASTOR BEN PASCAL

Dear PCJH Family,

When I was a little boy I loved the film, Star Wars. I wanted to be a Jedi Knight. In fact, my best friend, Todd, and I used to play a game of imagination; he was Han Solo and I was Luke Skywalker. We called the game "Luke and Han." We would play for hours in our backyards fighting evil and imagining ourselves as heroes. I'm pretty sure we both had crushes on Princess Leah too. One of the most famous lines from Star Wars is when Luke is flying his plane through the canyons of the Death Star in order to rid the universe of evil. Luke's late mentor and counselor, Obi-Wan Kenobi speaks to him in a supernatural way. Luke hears Obi-Wan's voice say, "Use the Force, Luke... Let Go, Luke... Trust me, Luke".

In Star Wars there was a supernatural Force one could tap into in order to do miraculous and powerful things. Throughout the Bible, God tells us of a similar Force that we all have access to in order to do things we never thought possible. It is the Holy Spirit. God's very own Spirit. The Spirit of Christ.

Some of you might be saying to yourself, "Yeah, right. That's a fairy tale, a figure of speech, it's just wishful thinking. Before you begin to say those things, I pray that we will all have open hearts and minds to the power and reality of the Holy Spirit. Just as there are radio waves, cell phone conversations, text messages, and online data traveling through the air right now as you read this, so too is God's Spirit. The Holy Spirit is moving like the wind in the air; causing things to rise and fall like the lungs in your chest; and ebbing and flowing like the tides and currents in the rivers and oceans. The Holy Spirit has been poured out onto all of creation, including you and me. The Holy Spirit is active and alive and we all can tap into it in various ways, using various gifts. What would happen in your life if you were to ask the Holy Spirit to fill you, to move in and through you?

What would happen?

Come here more about the Holy Spirit on Pentecost Sunday, May 20th.

On the journey with you,
-Ben

Compassion SUNDAY

PCJH is excited to participate in Compassion Sunday on May 13, 2018 at both services. This is a national event that helps us grow in our understanding of God's very special love for the poor. It's also an opportunity for each of us to interrupt the cycle of poverty and make a difference in the life of at least one child. A special information table will be displayed in the lobby with people to answer all your questions.

Some facts about global poverty:

- *11 children under age 5 die every minute.
- *45 percent of deaths of children under age 5 occur in the first 28 days of life. That means about 7,000 newborn babies die each day due to conditions of poverty.
- *Nearly 1 child in 5 of all children under age 5 does not have enough to eat (is undernourished).
- *Chronically undernourished children who manage to survive their first 5 years often live with physically stunted bodies, high susceptibility to illness and underdeveloped brains.
- *While malnourishment (not getting essential nutrients) affects 1 person in 3 worldwide, preventing malnutrition delivers $16 in returns on investment for every $1 spent.
- *At least 10 percent of the world's population is thought to consume food irrigated by waste water.
- *By 2025, half of the world's population will be living in water-stressed areas, meaning water is scarce, inaccessible or of poor quality.
- *An estimated 61 million primary school-aged children worldwide don't attend school.
- *More than 21.3 million people — roughly the population of Australia — are refugees.
- *Some 880 million people live in slums, and nearly 40 percent of the world's future urban expansion is likely to occur in slums.

We have a chance to make a difference! Plan on coming that Sunday and prayerfully consider how you might want to engage.

For more information, contact Rev. Tammy Mitchell at tmitchell@pcjh.org.

Get Involved!

Upward Basketball at PCJH has made an impact on kids for Christ in the lives of hundreds, probably thousands. We've been offering it at the church for over 15 years. Upward not only impacts the kids that participate, but also the families and extended families who attend. It's a dynamic opportunity that reaches out to our community and provides an amazingly positive experience for our kids of Jackson Hole.

You too can make a huge difference in a kid's life! We are looking for people who could help support this amazing program. It doesn't take much - just a few hours a week for only a couple of months in the fall. No experience necessary! We are looking for coaches, scorekeepers, referees, game and facility supervisors, even team chaplains. Please note: You don't have to be a basketball player to help, just time and a willing heart!

Join us on the evening of May 9th at 7:00PM, right after the community meal, in the Genesis Room at PCJH. Jim Hamilton, our fearless leader and Upward Director, and the Regional Director for Fellowship of Christian Athletes, will be hosting an informational meeting for anyone that might have an interest in serving or participating in this ministry. For more information please contact Jim Hamilton at jhamilton@fca.org. See you there!

Who Is This Man?: The Unpredictable Impact of the Inescapable Jesus by John Ortberg

Facilitated by Kathy Robertson

In this five-session DVD-based small group bible study, Who Is This Man? John Ortberg reveals how Jesus made an inescapable influence on our world and how you can too.

Jesus is history's most familiar figure. His impact on the world is immense and non-accidental. From the Dark Ages to Post-Modernity he is the man who won't go away ... And yet ...

Who Is This Man? illustrates how Jesus' influence has swept over history, bringing his inspiration to the evolution of art, science, government, medicine, and education. And how his vision for us to lead lives of dignity, compassion, forgiveness, and hope continues to inspire and challenge humanity today.

Kneeling With Giants: Learning to Pray with History's Best Teachers by Gary Neal Hansen

Facilitated by Rev. Tammy Mitchell

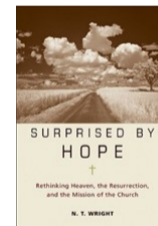

Do you sometimes find yourself searching for a way to approach God or wondering how to get out of a devotional slump? Do you long for spiritual guides you can trust? This guide to prayer is rooted in centuries of Christian tradition. Each week, we'll meet a figure from church history, such as St. Benedict, Martin Luther, John Calvin, St. Ignatius, Teresa of Ávila and Andrew Murray. Each chapter provides an opportunity to practice a different method for prayer, including the divine office, the Lord's Prayer, the Jesus Prayer, healing prayer and meditation on the Psalms. In the process your own prayer practice will be refreshed and renewed. Journey into church history and enliven each day of your prayer life.

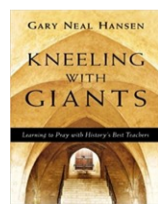

Wednesdays, 5:15PM, Genesis Room

Surprised by Hope: Rethinking Heaven, the Resurrection, and the Mission of the Church, by N.T. Wright

Facilitated by Rev. Tammy Mitchell

Many Christians believe our future in heaven is all that really matters. But that's not what the Bible teaches. In this six-session small group Bible study, premier Bible scholar N. T. Wright brings us inside the Scriptures to grasp the full, breathtaking hope Jesus offers the world, and its impact on our lives today. Gain an exciting new vision for our life on earth in light of our future in heaven. Wonderful as is the promise of heaven, a glorious hereafter is just part of what salvation is about. Each session will explore such questions as, "What might heaven be like?" "What hope does the gospel hold for this present life?" Surprised by Hope provides a clearer vision both of the future and of God's kingdom at hand today.

Starting May 23

We will mirror our Sunday morning adult class on Wednesday evenings at 5:15PM. Please join us! Child care provided.

Ephesians 2: 8-10 For it is by grace you have been saved, through faith-and this is not from yourselves, it is the gift of God - not by works, so that no one can boast. For we are God's handiwork, created in Christ Jesus to do good works, which God prepared in advance for us to do.

Experiencing God in Every Day

May 18th & 19th
9AM to 12PM @ The Table
201 E. 2nd St, Ste #25, Casper

Come enjoy the spiritual workshop and learn to experience God every day with these 3 spiritual practices.

1. Living in the Now

Often we live too much of our time living in the past or focusing on what is next and we miss the joy and the gifts of the moment! This practice will help us let go and be present here and now.

2. Daily Examen

This is a practice of prayerful reflection of the day in order to detect God's presence in its ordinary occurrences and to discern God's heartbeat for us. The Examen is an ancient practice that can help us see God's hand at work in our every day lives.

3. Morning Pages

Artist Julia Cameron developed this practice which involves writing and journaling. It provokes, clarifies, cajoles, prioritizes and synchronize the day before you.

We are living in a world that is absolutely transparent and the divine is shining through it all the time.

Hello From St. Louis and Prayer Update

Greetings from Saint Louis, Missouri! Since leaving PCJH in June 2014, I moved home to Seattle area for two years and coordinated programs at Seattle's Union Gospel Mission focused on caring for, serving and sharing the Gospel of Jesus Christ with men and women struggling with homelessness. It was truly amazing to see how God worked in this time, and I am very thankful for all that he taught me while there. In those two years, an even more important event happened: I got engaged and married to my wonderful wife Jillian!

Shortly after getting married in Spring 2016, we moved two thirds of the way across the country to Saint Louis Missouri so I could pursue a Master of Divinity Degree at Covenant Theological Seminary. During this season, Jillian and I have grown much in being in a brand new place together, and also learning much through church, school, and involvement in our community. God has also used this time to grow our identity in Christ and to discern where God is calling us after seminary. In this, I have felt an increased call toward pastoral ministry in the local church, and Jillian has grown in her giftings of hospitality and discipleship through relationship. These past two years have been incredibly formational for us, and we are so thankful for God's gracious and faithful provision in this time.

We have two years left in seminary, and are currently pursuing opportunities for vocational ministry in our home: the Pacific Northwest. I did a Pastoral Internship last summer at Green Lake Presbyterian Church in Seattle, WA, and we are returning this summer for a second Internship. We feel what we believe is a call from God to gospel ministry in this area, and are considering church planting there, as there is a great need for gospel-centered churches in the Pacific Northwest (a rapidly growing area). I am personally very thankful for you all at PCJH and how you encouraged and shepherded me through the early stages of this discernment process from 2012-2014. If you would like to be on our support team or hear more of our vision for what God calling us toward, feel free to contact me at andrewhjalmer@gmail.com or 425-802-1569. May God bless you all!

Blessings!
Andrew

Upcoming Events in Children's Ministry

Sunday School: For the preschool group the theme for May will be "Work of Art." Students will learn that people are God's work of art and he has a plan for them through the story of Joseph. Please come by the Children's Welcome Center to sign you children up for Sunday School and learn more about what is happening! If you are interested in joining our Sunday School team please email Dylan Wade at dwade@pcjh.org or call.

After-School Adventures: A safe and adventurous Wednesday after-school program where students learn, play and grow in a nurturing Christian environment for K-8th grade. Children's Ministry Volunteers of the Month for April: Cathy Blount

Cathy took the reigns from the Reedy's this past month for the 3rd-5th graders in Sunday School. It has been such a blessing to have Cathy and Robyn and Randy trade off for this age group throughout the year. The consistency the students are getting at this age is wonderful and makes a profound and positive impact on the kids. Thank you Cathy for sharing your gift and putting in the extra effort for the children of PCJH.

A WORD FROM PASTOR TAMMY

How's Your Devotional Life?

From Genesis to Revelation, we discover a God who longs to be "with us." From the garden of Eden, to Abraham, to Moses, to David, to the nation Israel, and culminating in the very incarnation of God, Jesus Christ, God's determination to be "with us" cannot be ignored. Even the prophet Isaiah referenced the name of God as "Immanuel" which means, "God with us." Recall the last words of Jesus on earth were, "I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Mt. 28:20)."

The question of the day is, are we willing to be with God?

According to many surveys and polls, many people profess a belief in God and would self identify as "Christian." However, the idea of having a dynamic, personal, and vibrant relationship "with God" may be...well...foreign. How does our faith in Christ move from our head to our heart? Don't we long to know God more? How do we answer the quest in our own souls to know Christ more? Will we ever move past our doubts and questions? Can we ever get over our past shame or grief? Don't we yearn to have a stronger love or know a stronger love? Don't we wish we could sense God's presence more in our lives? Are we feeling spiritually dry and distant from God?

If the answer to at least one of these questions is true, may I suggest one simple yet powerful step - accept the invitation to spend time with Christ every day?

Don't get me wrong. I am not promoting a religiosity that would somehow cure all spiritual ills. Nor am I setting us up for "failure" if we don't pray every day. Rather, I'm offering the opportunity for us to take seriously the call of God to be with God.

A beautiful resource to help us move forward is the daily use of a Christian devotional. A devotional is a simple resource compiled by people from all walks of the Christian faith who reflect on the scriptures and offer their insights.

I have found the benefits of reading a devotional are multiple. First, they help me pray. Sometimes praying is difficult. We don't know what to pray for or how to pray or what words to use. I have been so inspired to read or hear other people pray. Sometimes I'll read something in the devotional and I'll exclaim, "That's exactly how I feel!" Devotionals articulate my own heart in ways I would not or could not do so otherwise. Second, they help me become better familiar with God's word. Many people long to better understand the Bible but feel it's a daunting endeavor. A devotional may reference only a few verses, but those verses may be life-changing. I will often look up the verses only to discover myself lost in reading even more. The more I read, the more I learn God's word. It's a win/win.

Third, devotionals spur me to think and reflect and meditate on my relationship with God. It's common for me to journal about the scripture or the given insight and how they impact my own life. I have been deeply enriched when I have taken time to really allow the passage take root. Fourth, daily devotional reading creates a wonderful discipline. Instead of being something I should do, it becomes something I cannot do without. I long to find out how God might speak to me today and anticipate hearing God's voice. Fifth, daily reading allows me to soak in God's presence. It becomes more than a reading...it becomes an encounter with the loving Lord.

Are we willing to be with God?
Do you have a devotional that you use?

PCJH wants to encourage all of us to read and embed the Bible in our lives. We have several devotionals available upon request. I would strongly recommend the following:

- *My Utmost For My Highest, by Oswald Chambers
- *Jesus Calling, by Sarah Young
- *Streams in the Desert, by L.B. Cowman
- *A Diary of Private Prayer, by John Baillie
- *Bread for the Journey, by Henri Nouwen

Blessings on your journey of faith.

Warmly in Christ,
Tammy
