MADE TO CREATE

an activity that explores ideas through the process of drawing, building, designing, and problem-solving

Before kids arrive, take some time to lift your time together with your students up to God in prayer. Pray that today's time with your kids would be rewarding in a way that you're not expecting. Ask Him for opportunities to connect with your kids and help them understand how they can find encouragement and be an encouragement in their friendships.

1. JUST FOR FUN

WHAT YOU NEED: Offering container, paper plates, paper, markers, scissors

WHAT YOU DO:

- We're still party planning to get ready for the block party . . . everyone's invited! Today we must figure out the menu.
- Give paper, markers, and scissors and ask them to draw and cut out the "BEST" party food.
- Instruct kids to make enough of each item for everybody to have one. (i.e., if the food is chips and you have 10 small group members, draw and cut out 10 chips)
- Put all the plates out in your group's area, buffet-style. Have kids add their food creations to the plates to share.
- Let kids set out the food they've created and pretend to enjoy it.
- Invite them to serve each other by passing the plates around and letting everyone take an item.

WHAT YOU DO:

- Set the chairs or the pieces of paper in a circle (You need one fewer chairs than the number of kids present today).
- Explain that you are going to play musical chairs.
 - When you start the music, kids walk in a circle around the chairs.
 - When the music stops, everyone races to find a spot.
 - The kid who is left without a spot shares something cool or nice a friend has done for them recently (or something encouraging they've done for a friend recently).
 - Then play again.

1. TAKE A SNAPSHOT

[LIVE FOR GOD | APPLICATION ACTIVITY]

WHAT YOU NEED: Strips of fabric or scarves and a start/finish line

WHAT YOU DO:

- Divide the group into same-gender pairs.
- Mark a start line at one side of the room and a finish line at the other end of the room, using the tape.
- Explain that kids are going to be competing in a 3-legged race.
- Pass out one strip of fabric to each pair.
- Instruct pairs to stand side by side.
 - The partners' inside legs (the right leg of the partner on the left and the left leg of the partner on the right) should be touching.
 - Tie the partners' inside legs together just below the knee.
- Tell the players to line up at the starting line.
 - Position yourself at the finish line so you can clearly see which pair wins.
 - At your signal, pairs walk or run as fast as they can to the finish line, BUT they may NOT talk at all!
 - Declare a winner.
- Instruct kids to come back to the start line.
 - For the second round, they may only talk/strategize for 10 seconds before the race begins, but no talking during the race.
 - Declare a winner.
- Direct kids back to the start line and tell them that for round three they may talk and encourage each other as much as they'd like throughout the race.
 - Declare a winner.
- Discuss:
 - Which race was the most successful? Why?
 - Did you all get faster each time? Why?
 - Note: Someone will probably say "We got faster because we practiced." While that is most likely true, we want them to see that being able to talk and encourage each other when they're working together is really important!

2. BIBLE STORY EXTENSION

[TALK ABOUT GOD | BIBLE STORY REVIEW]

WHAT YOU NEED: "Bible Story Strips" (Activity Page), blind folds, tape, "Elijah and "Elisha" Activity Pages

WHAT YOU DO:

- Explain that you will be playing a spin on "pin the tail on the donkey," except you'll be playing pin the story line on Elijah or Elisha.
- Hang the "Elijah" sign on the wall, and then hang the "Elisha" sign a couple feet to the right or left, on the same wall.
 - As you do this, instruct kids to put tape loops on the back of each story strip.
- Ask for a volunteer to go first.
- Blindfold the first kid, read them their strip, and then spin them three times and point them toward the wall.
- Instruct them to aim for the sign that corresponds to the person their strip is referring to.
- Continue taking turns until all the strips are hung on the wall.
- Work together to tape the strips correctly under the right person. (Correct answers below)
- Discuss how Elijah and Elisha were encouraging to each other.
 - How was Elisha there for Elijah when God called him away?
 - How did Elijah serve his friend and put his needs ahead of his own?

Answers:

- He was very zealous for the Lord, and was sent to anoint the other. (Elijah)
- He was plowing a field when the other came to find him. (Elisha)
- He kissed his father and mother goodbye and followed the other. (Elisha)
- He told the other to "stay here" because the LORD had called him to Bethel. (Elijah)
- He said- no way! I'm not staying here—I'm coming with you. (This happened several times) (Elisha)
- He took his cloak, rolled it up and struck the water with it. The water divided to the right and to the left, and the two of them crossed over on dry ground. (Elijah)
- He said the other was like a Father to him. (Elisha)
- God took him up to heaven in a chariot of fire. (Elijah)
- After his friend had been taken to heaven, he rolled up his cloak and struck the water with it again, and the water divided and he walked on dry ground again- but this time he was alone. (Elisha)

WHAT YOU NEED: No supplies needed

WHAT YOU DO:

- When has someone encouraged you? What did they do?
- When is the last time you encouraged someone else? What did you do?
- Are all your friends your age? How could you benefit from having friends that are older than you? What about younger friends?
- Why does it sometimes feel awkward to use our words to encourage our friends?
- What would make it easier to encourage our friends?

4. VERSE TO TAKE WITH YOU [HEAR FROM GOD | MEMORY VERSE ACTIVITY]

WHAT YOU NEED: Bibles, notecards, pens, markers, dry erase board and marker

WHAT YOU DO:

- Ask for four volunteers to each read one of the following verses aloud.
- Discuss with the group what they mean. What can you learn from these verses?
 - 1 Thessalonians 5:11
 - Proverbs 27:17
 - Ephesians 4:29
 - Proverbs 17:17
- Hand each a notecard and ask them to write down five encouraging phrases on their notecard.
 - These can be phrases directly inspired by the verses the group just read or any other encouraging phrases they come up with.
 - Examples: You can do it! You're doing great. What a wonderful idea. That's awesome! I really appreciate you. Way to go!
- Collect the cards and (secretly) pick a phrase from any card to use to play hangman on the dry erase board.
- Hangman directions:
 - Draw a number of blanks equal to the number of letters in the phrase at the bottom of the play area (include spaces between blanks for a new word).
 - For example, if you chose the phrase "way to go," you would draw three blanks, a space, two blanks, a space, and two more blanks.
 - Let kids take turns trying to guess a letter that appears in the secret phrase.
 - If they guess a letter that DOES appear in the phrase, fill it in the correct blank/s.
 - If they guess a letter that does NOT appear in the phrase, draw a part of a stick figure image of a man being hanged.
 - This picture usually consists of 11 parts: the arms, body, head and legs, as well as the rope, upright, crossbar and angle of the gallows.
 - as kids guess, write down any guessed letters that don't appear in the word as a reminder for future turns.
 - The first kid to guess the correct answer, before running out of stick figure parts, gets to pick the next phrase from the notecards.
 - Play a few rounds as a group or break kids up into groups of three and let them play their own games.
- Ask kids to share some ideas for how they can put these phrases to use this week.
- Close the activity by letting each kid choose a verse from earlier to write on a notecard and take home as a reminder of what God says about encouraging others.
